PROGRESS

Years of Progress

On April 7, 1908, at the regular Township Election, the voters of Lockport voted on the proposition of establishing a township high school and the proposition carried.

A special election was then called to elect the Board of Education. The board met and organized on June 1, 1908. Edwin C. Young was elected the first president of the board. Immediately after the first organization meeting the board had frequent meetings to devise ways and means to establish and locate a high school and carry out the desire of the people as expressed by their verdict in voting for the proposition.

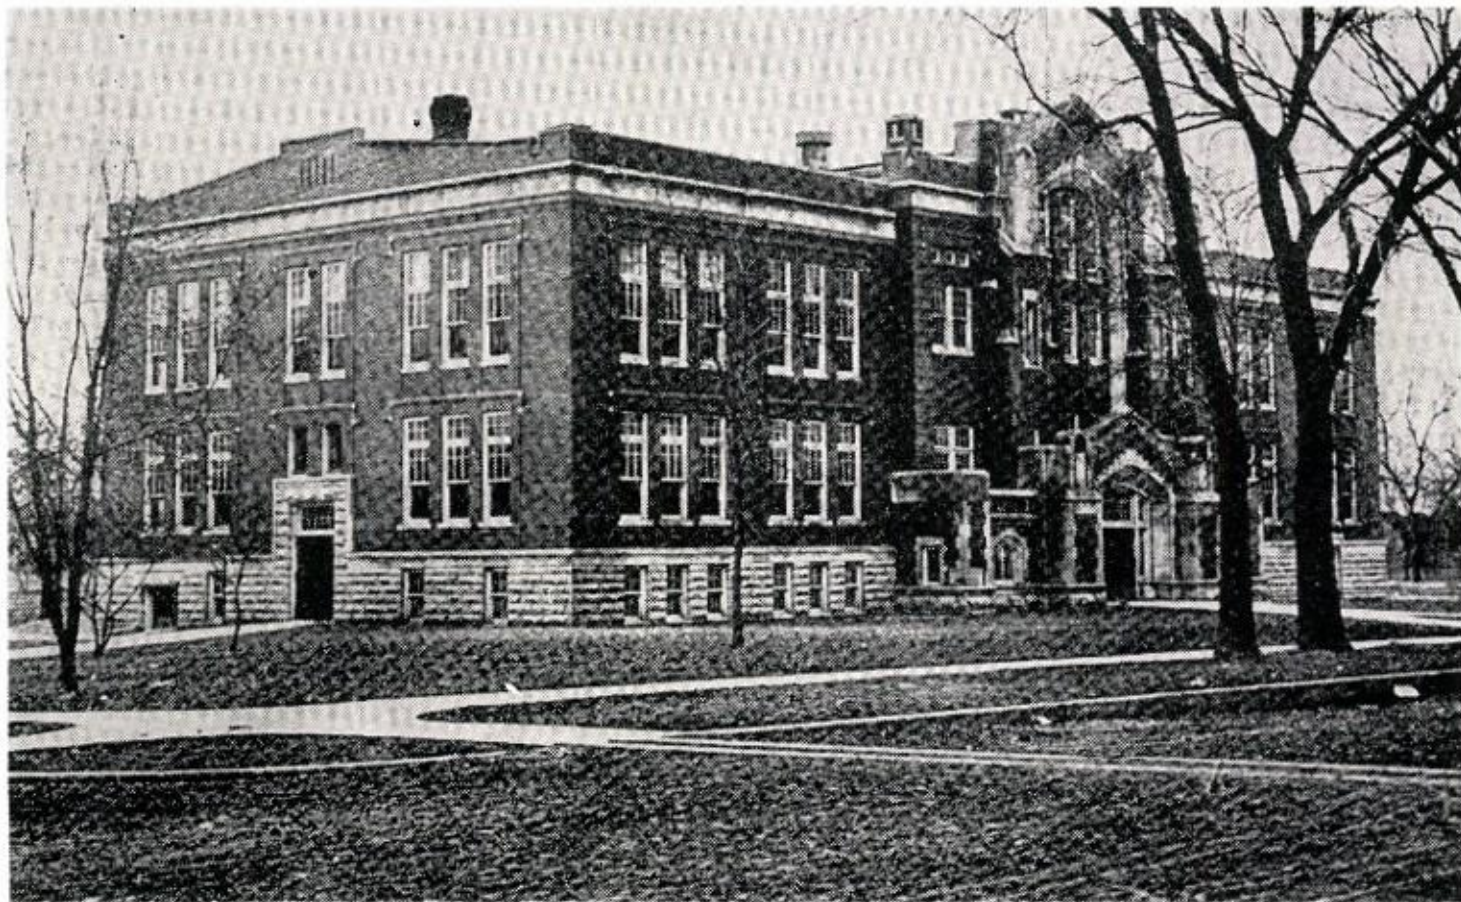

Another election followed to vote on the proposals of purchasing a site, building a Township High School, and issuing a bond in the sum of $50,000.00. When the voters failed to locate any site by a majority vote the board passed a resolution fixing the site in our present location.

In December of 1908 plans were approved and the general contract was awarded for the sum of $34,929.00.

The building was occupied by the high school pupils about November 15, 1909, after the high school had been held for two months in the Opera House awaiting completion of the building.

These were the first of many years of progress. Later in 1925 and 1930 we added what is now the gymnasium, swimming pool, victory tower, and our beautiful trophy room. In January of 1953 unit one of our third addition was opened. It included a spacious library seating 174 people, two large study halls seating 240 students, a boiler room, an electrical distribution center, and receiving and storage facilities. Finally in 1955 unit two of our third addition was opened. It included an agricultural department, a new cafeteria, girl's gymnasium, new quarters for the music department, and a new auditorium accommodating 1,200 persons which will eventually be completed.

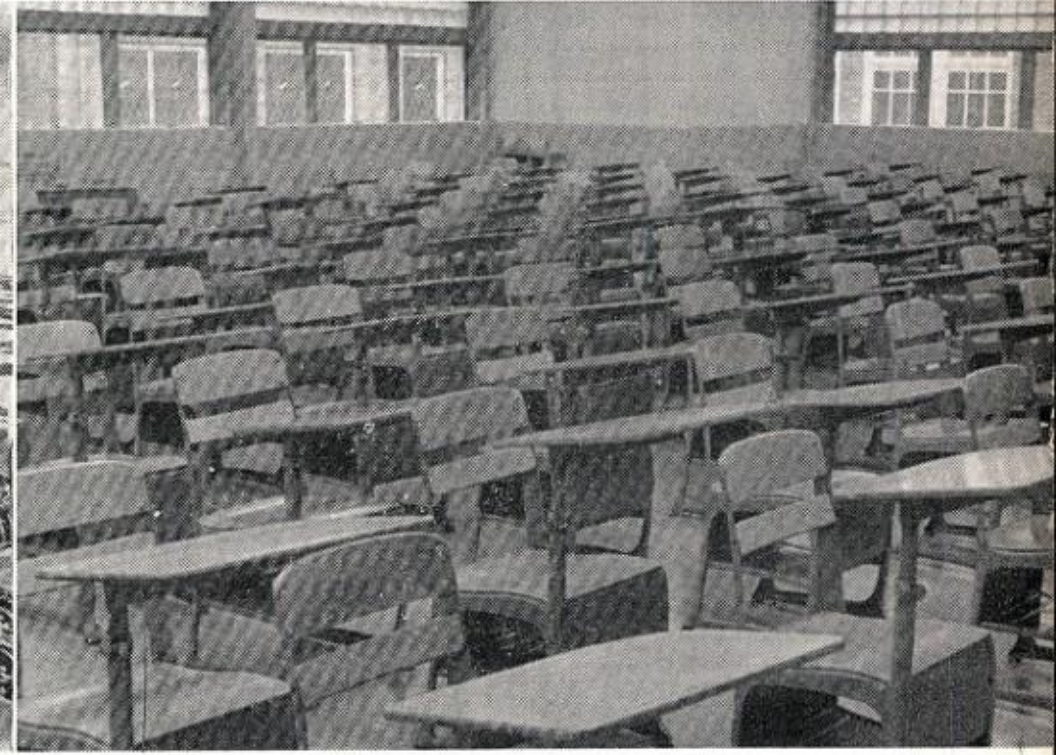

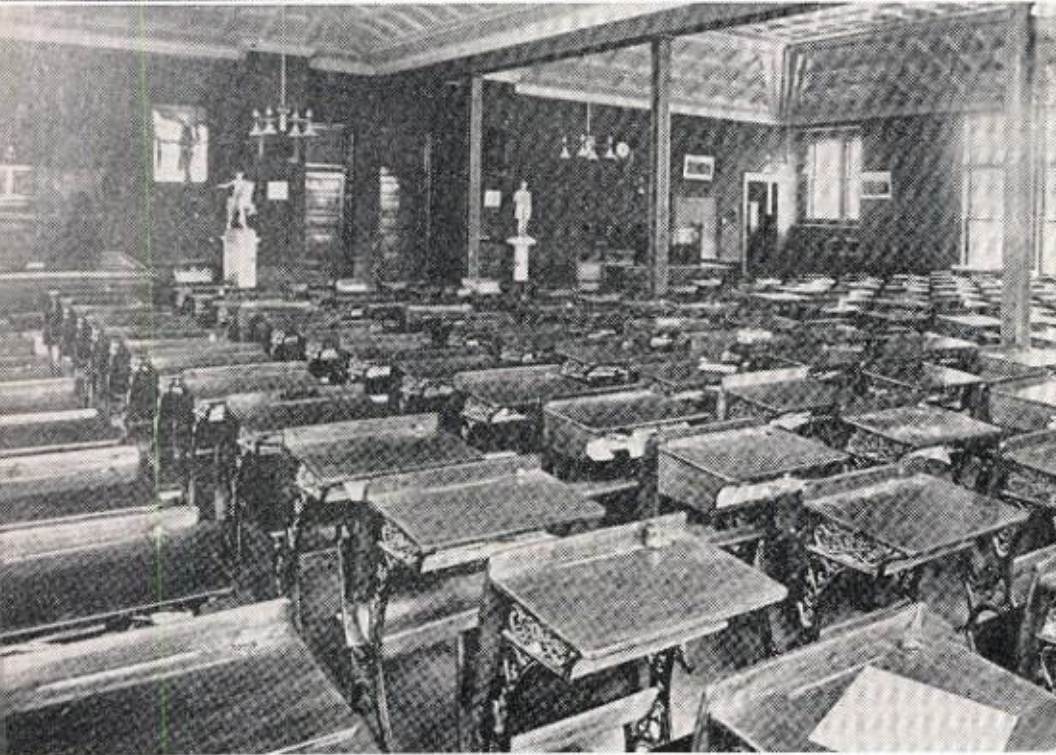

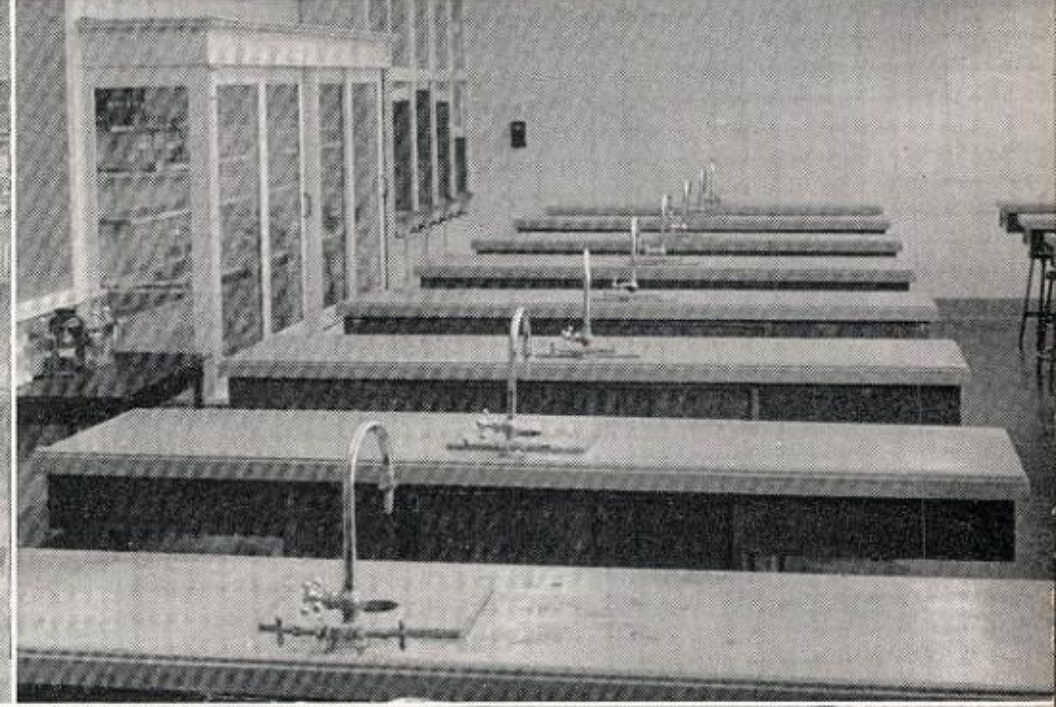

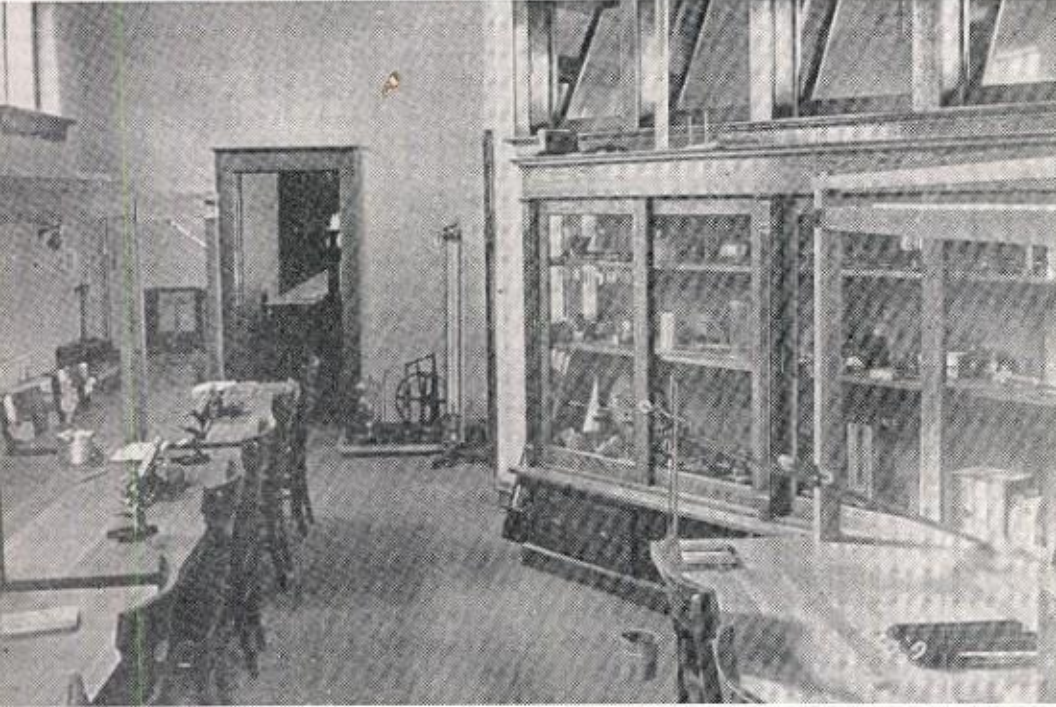

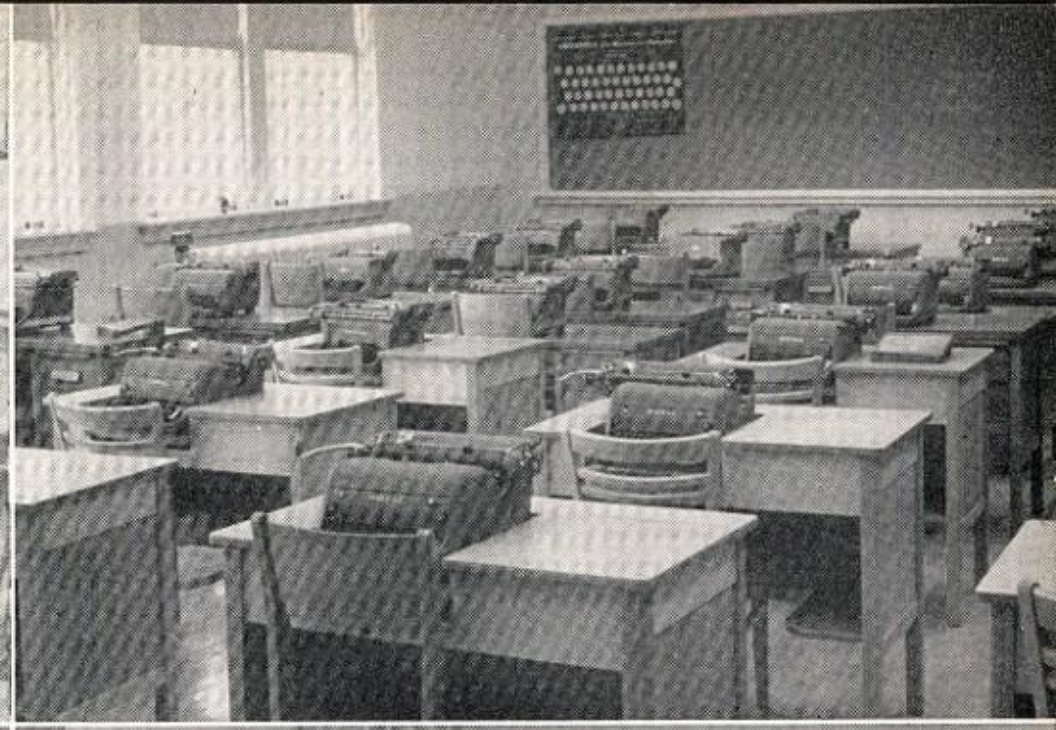

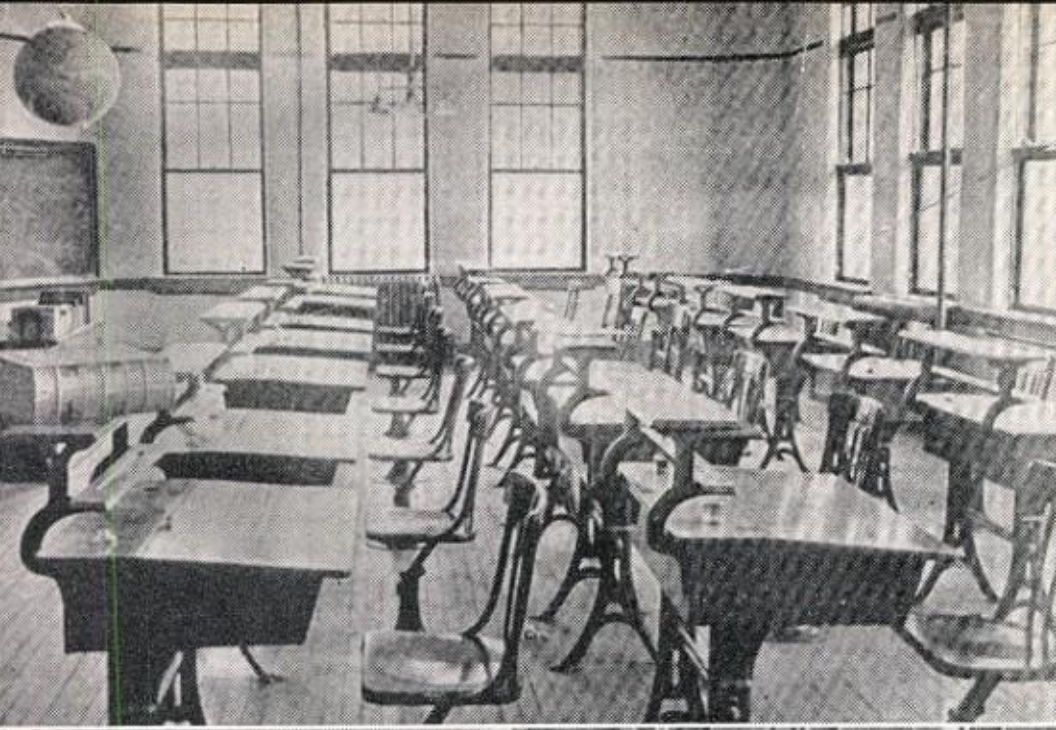

Our years of progress have been many and varied; they constitute an effort which has made Lockport High one of the finest in this area.

Dedication

Over twenty-four years ago a teacher of the "old school" became a member of the Lockport Township High School faculty. Through his informal style of teaching, Mr. Johnsonius soon became a familiar personality.

The career of Mr. Johnsonius has been varied. He has taught nearly every subject in the curriculum, and also spent some time coaching a basketball team at Lewisburg, Tennessee. He hails from Paris, Tennessee, and was graduated from Paris High School and Cumberland University. After teaching for a few years, Mr. Johnsonius served in the Army during World War I and was stationed in France. When he returned to civilian life, he continued his teaching until 1930. Then he continued his studies at the University of Chicago where he received his Master's degree.

It was at this point that Mr. Johnsonius began a long and successful association with Lockport Township High School until his retirement last year. During the seventeen years he coached the junior and senior plays and the Christmas programs, he gave willingly of his time and talents. In addition to his many activities, Mr. Johnsonius still found time for his hobby of raising prize gladioli.

When asked what he intended to do in the future, "There just ain't enough time for me to do all the nothing I want to do."

For his unfaltering service to our school and continued efforts to guide students on the road to success, we dedicate this annual to Mr. Johnsonius. We wish him immeasurable happiness for the future.

Our Superintendent

Upon announcing his ambition of running for the State Legislature, Mr. Louis F. Bottino's resignation as superintendent of L.T.H.S. was reluctantly accepted by the school board. His resignation brought to a close four years of very progressive activity at L.T.H.S.

During Mr. Bottino's administration further steps in education were instituted because of the expansion of our school. Realizing the great need for scientific and mathematical knowledge Mr. Bottino was instrumental in widening the curriculum in this direction. The new addition tended to suggest the need for improvements in the old building. Classrooms gained new interest with better lighting, fresh paint, and new furniture where needed. Also during this time a better method of keeping student records came into use, along with a new guidance program.

Mr. Bottino has been very active not only at L.T.H.S. but throughout the community. At present he is the member of several professional and community organizations such as the American Legion, Royal Order of Moose, and John Olson Post of Lockport.

Mr. Bottino's primary interest has always been in the field of education, but he has long had the desire to serve his community to a greater extent. This desire prompted him to enter his name on the Republican ticket for the legislature of Illinois.

Through his unfailing efforts for the advancement of our school, Mr. Louis F. Bottino will always be remembered as an outstanding individual during the growth and expansion of L.T.H.S.

BOARD OF EDUCATION: Joseph Bolattino, Harold Schmitz, John Lynch - secretary, Carl Munson, Guido Schumann, Robert Morse, Louis Bottino - superintendent.

School

Through the diligent work and splendid co-operation of the office personnel, L.T.H.S. has completed another year. Throughout our high school days the office personnel have helped us in countless ways.

They have always kept things running smoothly for students and faculty alike. We appreciate their unfailing assistance and salute them for their conscientiousness and wonderful patience.

Esther Geddes is the secretary to the superintendent; Lois Manthy handles activity accounts and the bookstore; Margaret Shepherd is our registrar and attendance secretary; and Janet Paul does general office work and operates the new switchboard.

Of equal importance in keeping the school running smoothly is the maintenance staff. The people behind the scenes of this staff are Dominick Shulla, supervisor of maintenance, Joseph Kucera, operating engineer and maintenance, and Richard Longhini, mechanical maintenance and repairs. The maintenance assistants are Mrs. Frances Ayers, Joseph Brennan, John Finco, Clarence Johnson, Alex Munday, Peter Piazza, and Kenneth Strong.

Their many and varied tasks keep them busy day and night trying to keep the building clean and in good condition. As the school increases in size, so do their problems of maintenance.

In office 211 Miss Margaret Shepherd, registrar, issues absence slips to Paul Banister and Marva Poston.

Miss Janet Paul operates the new switchboard as Mrs. Esther Geddes, secretary to the superintendent, calls out and Mrs. Lois Manthey looks on.

Mrs. Dorothy McGinn, secretary, listens as Mr. John D. Lynch, board secretary, dictates in the new board office.

Personnel

Our very capable cafeteria staff makes sure that the faculty and some 600 L.T.H.S. students are properly fed. This remarkable feat has been accomplished under the guidance of Mrs. Marion K. Morrison, faculty manager, and Mrs. Hazel Adamson, assistant manager. Under the careful supervision of Mr. John Gahala every noon, things are kept under control.

Especially novel this year is the use of our new cafeteria. It is furnished with modern, efficient equipment. We have enjoyed using the cafeteria and are grateful to the cafeteria staff who do extra work by preparing food for our teams and for the junior-senior picnic.

The health room, where all the headaches, stomach-aches, and other minor illnesses are treated, is handled by Mrs. Nellie Fisher. She must be on hand to try to make the students comfortable when they are not well enough to attend classes.

Through the home-nursing course, taught by Miss Barbara Polyak, many junior and senior girls learn the fundamentals of caring for the sick.

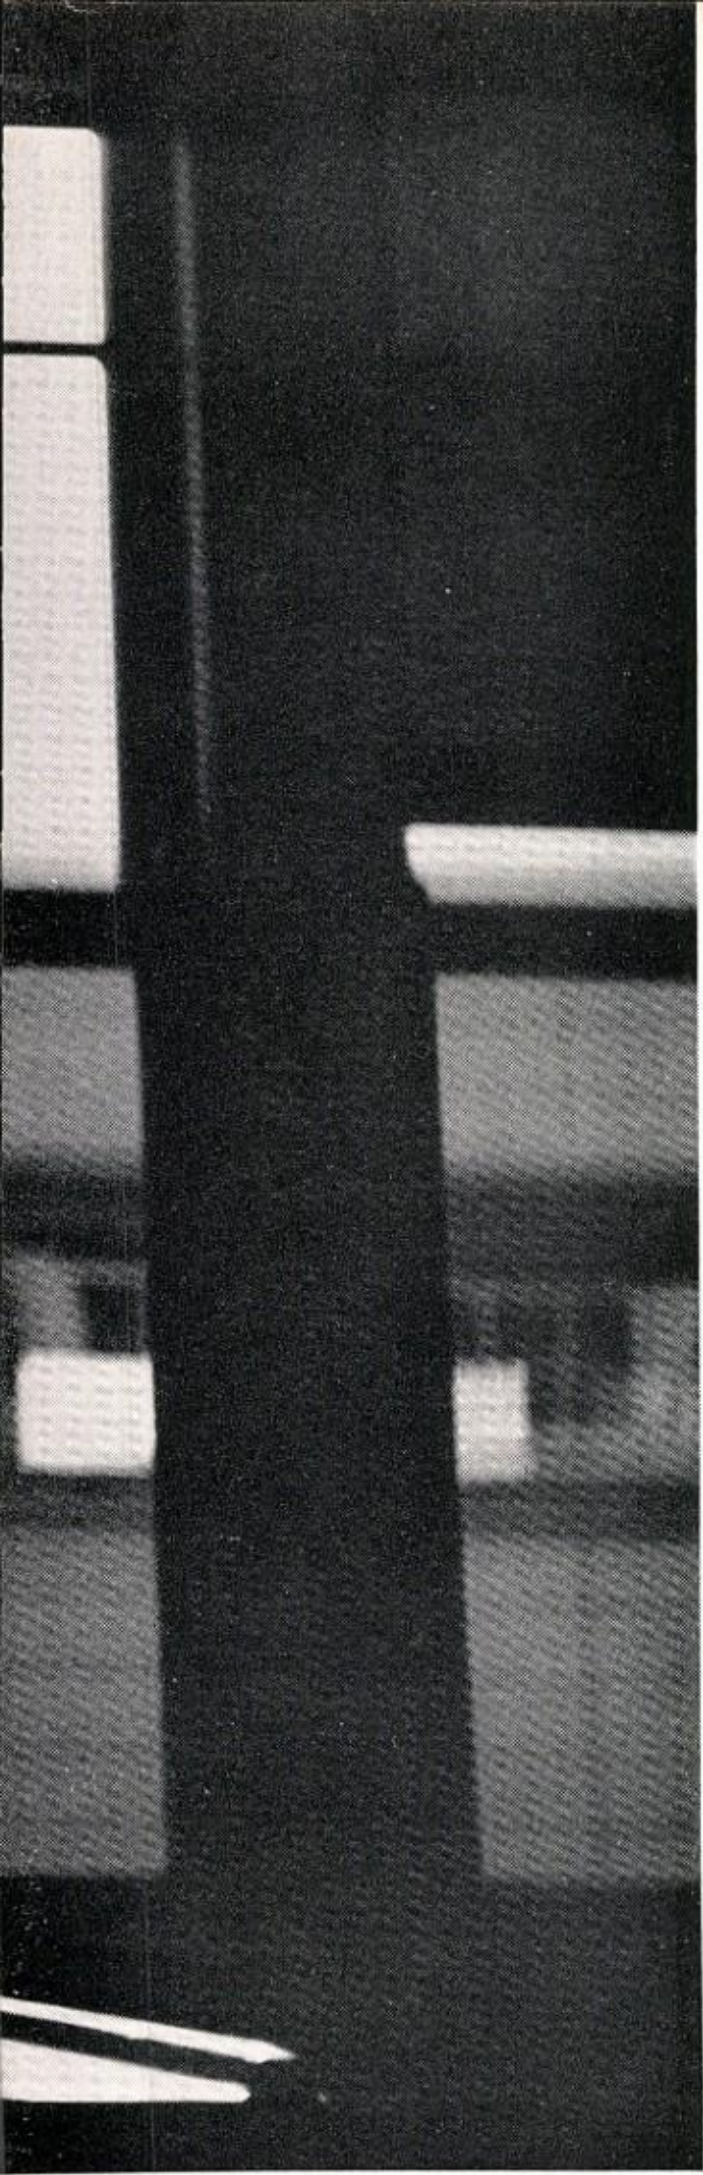

Miss Barbara Polyak and Mrs. Nellie Fisher apply a heat pad to the arm of Joan M. Carlson, a student in the Home Nursing Class.

Mrs. Hazel Adamson, Mrs. Irene Pierson, Mrs. Euphemia Woock, Mrs. Ann Anderson, and Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson are busy preparing a meal for the students of L.T.H.S.

The Marks Of Progress

Who among us will ever forget that fateful year of 1952 that brought us as Freshmen, over two hundred strong, to Lockport High School? Since then we have passed the terrorizing experiences of freshmen, suffered the less painful pangs of sophomoris, accepted cheerfully the responsibilities of juniors and now, at last—we are seniors!

Great changes have occurred since that memorable day in '52, when we met as freshmen. Sod has been broken for the laying of new cornerstones. With larger quarters have come new faces among the faculty and additional courses in the curriculum. These are the marks of progress.

Although we have diminished somewhat in numbers, we have gained strength in all the activities found at L.T.H.S. The choosing of invitations and the measuring for caps and gowns, the presentation of our senior class play "Stage Door," and the final participation in the various annual programs served to remind us that we would soon be leaving the halls of L.T.H.S. As a climax to our year of social activities we anticipate the Junior-Senior Prom which causes a flash back in our minds as we recall "Manhattan Moods."

With the passing of the class of '56 goes the relief of the faculty, the horror of the juniors, the protector of the sophomores, and the ideal of the freshmen.

Soon we must leave Lockport High, and we shall go forth feeling that we owe more to our Alma Mater than we can possibly express. What will we do in the game of life?

Class Reunion

Here it is June 1966 and the first reunion of the Class of '56. Some of our classmates have journeyed to far-off places, but nevertheless, we are able to bring you a full report.

JAY ANDERSON was unable to leave his work in the Far North where he is a lumberjack. PENNY LABORENCE is his assistant. BARBARA BALDEGO has been modeling grass skirts in Alaska. PAT BOE, riding Wildfire, just won the Kentucky Derby. VIRGINIA BUCK has been serving in the army with the rank of Buck Private. SALLY BRUNTJEN recently ran in the Olympics. SANDRA FARNSWORTH is busy building igloos in Hawaii. PHILLIP DEERING recently became the president of the New Confederacy. Selling light bulbs in dargest Africa, we find GERALD DERENSKI. PEGGY GILLIGAN may be found in Alaska married to an Eskimo. EDWARD HEEG has been studying art in Paris for ten years. DAVID HALL has been hitch-hiking around the world. Our last report showed that he finally had reached Kansas. Another classmate unable to attend is NANCY HARVEY. Her job as kangaroo catcher keeps her very busy. BETTY HUBRICH is finally on her honeymoon in the Bahamas. ELAINE HUMLICK is a professional marathon participant. Making outstanding contributions in the field of science is that famous lady chemist, EMMA MCCAIN. CAROL MICHAELSON has been wrestling alligators in Florida. DAVID PETLESKI is serving his third term as president of Lower Slobovia. The title of World's Safest Driver was recently awarded to PETER VESCOVI.

Many of our classmates are still in the Lockport area. Starching nurses' caps in a local laundry is ROSANNE WAWCZAK. BARBARA YOUNG is a pro golfer. DORIS VAHLE is still busy collecting "Bills." LAWRENCE WEIS is a barber at the local hotel. HAROLD SCHMITZ is still a carry-out boy at the A&P. PAT SCHRUMPF recently received a patent for a new mouse trap. CAROL SHERMAN is the new owner of the Roxy. THERESEA STERNISHA works at a local bakery, putting jelly in bismarks. Helping to complete the latest addition at L. T. H. S. is HOUSLE SCHMIDT, a local brick layer. RICHARD SCHROLL is a champion ice cream salesman. Working as garbage collectors are RAYMOND SCHULER and ROBERT SMREKAR. CAROL SCOGIN is the new editor of the Lockport Herald. MARY LOU PRUETER is a waitress at the Pizza. We find VIRGINIA RILEY living the life of Riley. ROBERT RESZEL has been collecting antique cars. The super saleslady in The Tot Shop is SANDRA SANTERELLI. In the food industry we see ALLEN PARKER baking Parker House Rolls and STEVE PLATKO canning "Revels" dog food. ROBERT POLLARD is a house painter. TONY MATESE has quite a collection of match book covers. NANCY MIKUS recently helped test the new atomic typewriters. DONA MCNAMEE is appearing on T.V. with a mousekateer program. Still studying for the $64,000 program is BONITA MCCARTHY. PATRICIA MENTZER is the proprietor of a Bridal Shop. MARIAN McGINN is a manicurist at a local barber shop. DAN KOBE can be seen in his own music store. NANCY KOZAK and MARILYN MANCE are busy peddling cosmetics. PAULINE HOPPER just quit her job as a mounted police. Other classmates employed locally are WAYNE JURGEL, a wreck builder; DONALD KELM, a mortician; JOHN KENNEDY, a brush salesman; CAROLYN KIJOWSKI, a saleslady for Buick; and WALLACE GULDAN, a waiter at the Alligator Inn.

ROBERT KINSELLA was recently chosen to finish several projects begun by Einstein. RAYMOND GURNITZ has met his equal, a wife that outtalks him. The wanderer, NANCY HERMAN, has just returned from her fifth trip abroad. We understand CAROL GRIKSTAS is still skipping school. At this rate she'll never finish college. According to rumors NAHON FRISCA spends every Monday evening applying a red rinse to her hair. The visiting classmates should stop and see "Barb"-er JIM FITZPATRICK. The Lockport Park District is headed by GEORGE DENICK. JUDY EICHHORN, JOYCE CRADER, and KATHLEEN FASSIOTTO have never changed jobs. Kathleen is still life guard at the Chaney pool, Joyce sells pop corn, and Judy was promoted to floor-walker at the 5 and 10. JUDY CURTIS operates a bridge on the I. & M. Canal; and PAT CUNICO, after years of hard work, owns a produce market. President of the local Mickey Mouse Club is KENNETH CARROL. The newly-elected Will County Coroner is PEGGY CARTER. GEORGE CLAUSSEN recently opened an optical shop. BUTCH CANEVA just discovered a new white buck polish. The Lockport Sewer Commissioner is none other than ANTON CAROLLO. GEORGE BUSH has won world acclaim for his wise words as National Democratic Committeeman. LARRY BURNWORTH is a square dance caller, JUDITH BLOGG, head ironer at Peoples Laundry, and JOHN BLASKEY, a member of the local police force. KATIE BARLOW is busy catching "Katie" duds. MARVIN ANGUS has his own herd. Demonstrating "tinthair" in the area is RAYMOND ASPEL. Putting holes in fish nets occupies much of MYRNA ALLEN'S time. CAROL ALEXANDER, stock car driver, suffered a broken leg last month. DON ARENDS has not worked since graduation. He claims there are no jobs available.

The exciting western states have lured many of our classmates. BARBARA CRNKOVIC is a roulette girl in Las Vegas. Busy in Chinatown tasting chop suey is BARBARA BURRIS. MARY GUARD, who recently starred in "Gentlemen Marry Blondes," reports that she spends much of her spare time "guard"-ing her good looks. We find DONALD KISS on the "This Is Your Story" program as a kiss tester. CAROL KOBE is entered in a pogo stick race. The checker champion of California is JOSEPH MATESKI. ELEANOR NYSTROM is busy with her P.E. classes at Boystown. Her assistant, DORLENE

SAMPLE, is still a "sharp cookie." SUE ROWLEY, a famous Hollywood dress designer, employs CAROL SCHUMANN as her "lady-in-waiting." Starring in their own T.V. shows are GLENN YOUNG, storyteller on "The Children's Hour," and ANN WOODS, the new Annie Oakley.

Barnum and Bailey claims TONY AROCH as ringmaster, PAT CERVELLI as a weight-lifter, EDITH COX as chief lion tamer, DAVID CRONK and SARALEA PADDOCK as elephant trainers, JACK JURICIC, snake charmer, DONALD LIKAR, circus strongman, EARL CARVER, world's smallest midget, and BRENDA PAISLEY, a sword swallower.

The glittering lights of the East have called RICHARD BISCHOFF, a photographer for "Vogue." BETTY BANISTER serves many Broadway stars in her wig shop. The kiddie kar tester for Macy's is JOHN BROZOVICH. Journalism has called KENNETH CLEAR, editor of "Real Romances," and EDWARD GRAY, author of the present best seller, "How To Avoid Women." Playing for the "Bloomer Girls" are NORA MCNEAR, catcher, and JOSEPH COLE, short stop. Square dance caller for the Eastern Hayride Program is MIKE DRICK. MARJEAN MARTIN is a modern dance instructor. STUART REITER, that famous story, "Reiter," assists BILL MASON in writing advice to the lovelorn. Hunting rocks is that famous geologist, JAMES PRICE. Vassar claims JIM WABOL in its math department. Currently starring on TV are FRED RODRIGUEZ, a replacement for Jackie Gleason and KAREN SANDSTROM, stunt girl for "Beat the Clock." DON SCHILDGEN, the famous dramatic actor, starred in a hit with SIMONE VAUGHT, who recently recorded the song hit "Ce Simone." RONNIE SENFFNER owns a Turkish Bath. BETTY THOMAS, undercover agent for the F.B.I., lives in Washington, D.C. Also employed there is SARA JO WIERSON, street cleaner. Farther east along the coast of Maine is RICHARD ZADEL, who has gained fame as a crab catcher.

"There's no business like show business" can be proven by the fact that so many of our classmates have entered the entertainment field. MARLENE ADELMANN replaced Gypsy Rose Lee, JEANNE BJORKMAN is the new "Ma" Kettle, and JEANNENE BERGMAN has taken Ingrid's place. BILL BURKE plays the bugle for Benny Goodman. Singing with Spike Jones is JUDITH ENEIX. BARBARA EBERHART plays the saxophone with the Lockport Symphony. T.V. claims PHYLLIS FRANCISCO, Cisco kid stand-in; RICHARD FRIDDLE, skating instructor; DORIS HOEHN, lady wrestler; DALE HEADLEE stand-in for the Lone Ranger; JAMES JUNGLES, Jungle Jim; and RONALD OTTO, stand-in for Trigger. The Liberate of the accordion is VAL GUDAC. NANCEE GANNAWAY replaced Sophie Tucker. HOWARD HABERKORN just received the title "Tarzan of '76." RONALD LUBICK is instructing JAMES LUNNINGHAM, a famous ballet dancer. ANNA MAE LONGHINI sang with Homer and Jethro last year. RICHARD PADILLA has replaced George Gobel.

Many of the grads of '56 are still living in the Midwest. JOAN CARLSON is a test driver for Mercury. The "T" man for Mr. Lipton is RAYMOND CASSON. Industry claims TOM CLEVELAND, JAMES CLOWER, ALAN TROXEL, HAROLD SOLLEY, and ED ZANELLI. Tom is a bobby pin bender, James a foreman in a squirt gun factory, Alan a manufacturer of slide rules, Harold the owner of a midget clothing factory, and Ed operates his own bubble gum factory. GORDON COLEMAN won a jacks championship and ROGER RADEMACHER a tiddley winks award. GERALD SANDERS, an airline pilot, reports that JOHN SANDERS continues to make frequent trips to West Virginia. CONNIE GUTIERREZ is also an airline employer. CAROL SCHIFLER recently began directing the Salvation Army Band. DON CRNKOVIC is doing quite well on his duck farm. JIM GECAN works long hours as a milkman. AUDREY GOSACK was the star left tackle for Notre Dame. In Chicago we find GOTTRY JUDY the head of the Patricia Stevens Modeling School. RICHARD GRAY is diligently practicing for the Indianapolis races. ROBERT GREEN was the "pop" singer of 1960. Home on leave is DALLAS HILL, that Buck Private from the hills. MARILYN HARRIS just purchased an antique shop. ROGER HABENICHT follows the races closely. He is a stable cleaner at Washington Park. ED TIMM plays pro ball and FRED JOHNSON is bat boy. Enjoying interesting occupations are MARJORIE KONICEK, a bee keeper; JACQUELINE MIKULA, a flagpole sitter; BURTON NELSON shoeing horse flies; PAT O'BRIEN, head nurse at Manteno; RONALD NORTON, a preacher; BRUCE PIERSON, a justice of the peace at Crown Point; ROBERT KONICEK, an ornithologist; PAT TURNER, a "hawg" caller; and MARVIN JOHNSON, a caretaker at Starved Rock. LAWRENCE TROUTMAN was elected lifetime president of G.A.A. KEITH WILSON is a replacement for Jimmy M. The new salesman for "Snap, Crackle and Pop" is RICHARD KEVISH. CANDY KNUTSON works in her father's store. GEORGE LANGE is still in college. We hope he earns a degree soon! RICHARD LINDBERG operates a cheese factory whose specialty is "Lindberger Cheese."

L. T. H. S. is fortunate to have members of our class serve in several capacities. BILL PLATT, the electrician, is working on the new addition. CHARLES SANBORN is truant officer. DOMINIC DANIELS has been Dean of Boys for five years. GLENN CARLSON returns in the fall as the new head of the English department.

The past ten years have brought many interesting changes to our classmates. The people responsible for this reunion hope that the '56 grads will continue to progress in the coming years.

One of the many craft courses at L.T.H.S. is mechanical drawing. Here students are working on one of the many projects done in class.

A very successful monitor system was initiated this year. Two of these monitors are conversing.

In auto shop these students are putting in and taking out parts of a truck. This is just one of many such "operations."

Senior science is a new course this year. Here students are taking part in a class discussion about static electricity.

Chemistry students are making another "startling discovery" in the "chem" lab.

Calculus students are being given instruction about the use of the slide rule, a very useful instrument in mathematics.

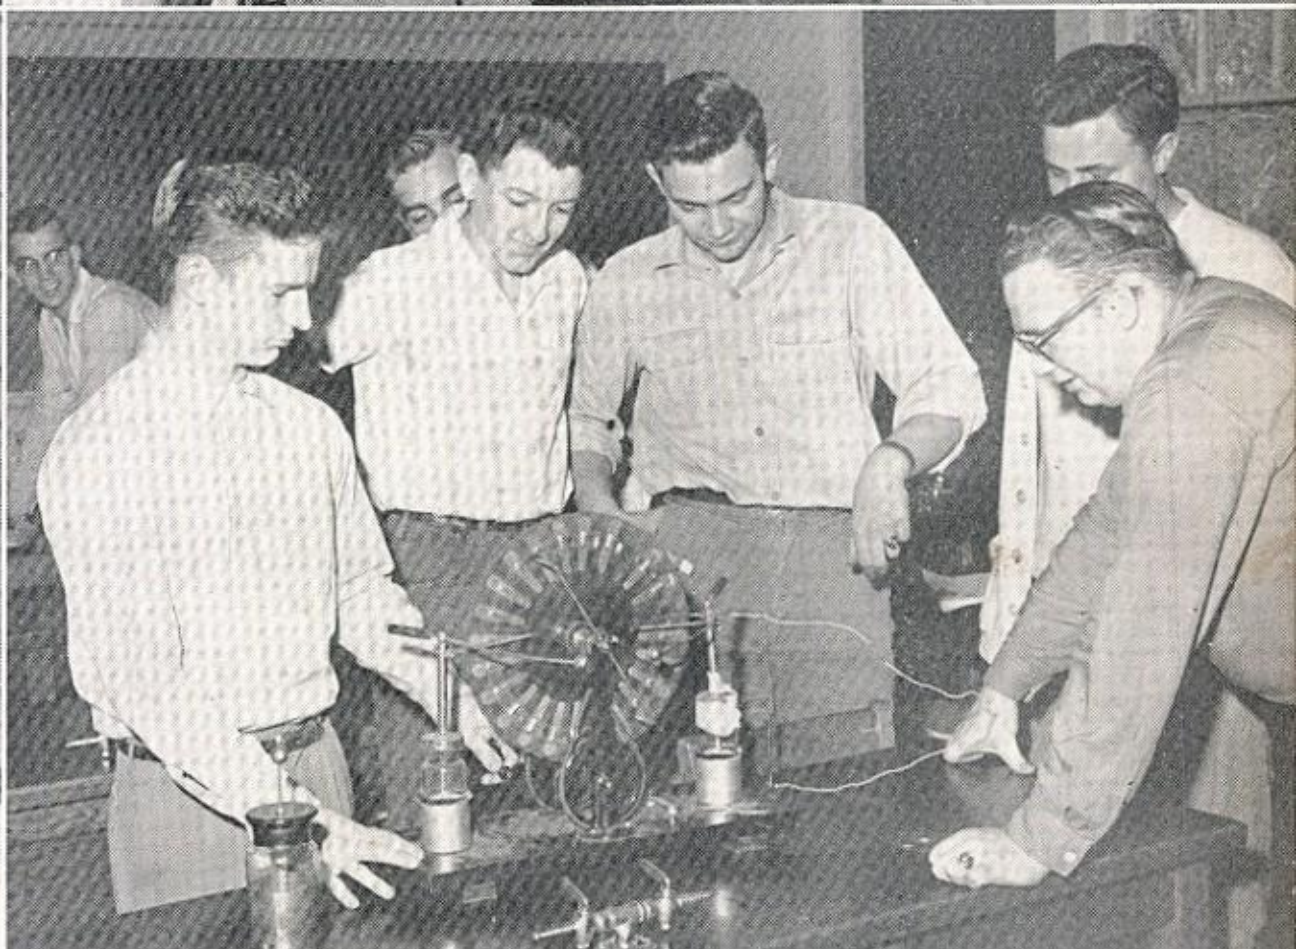

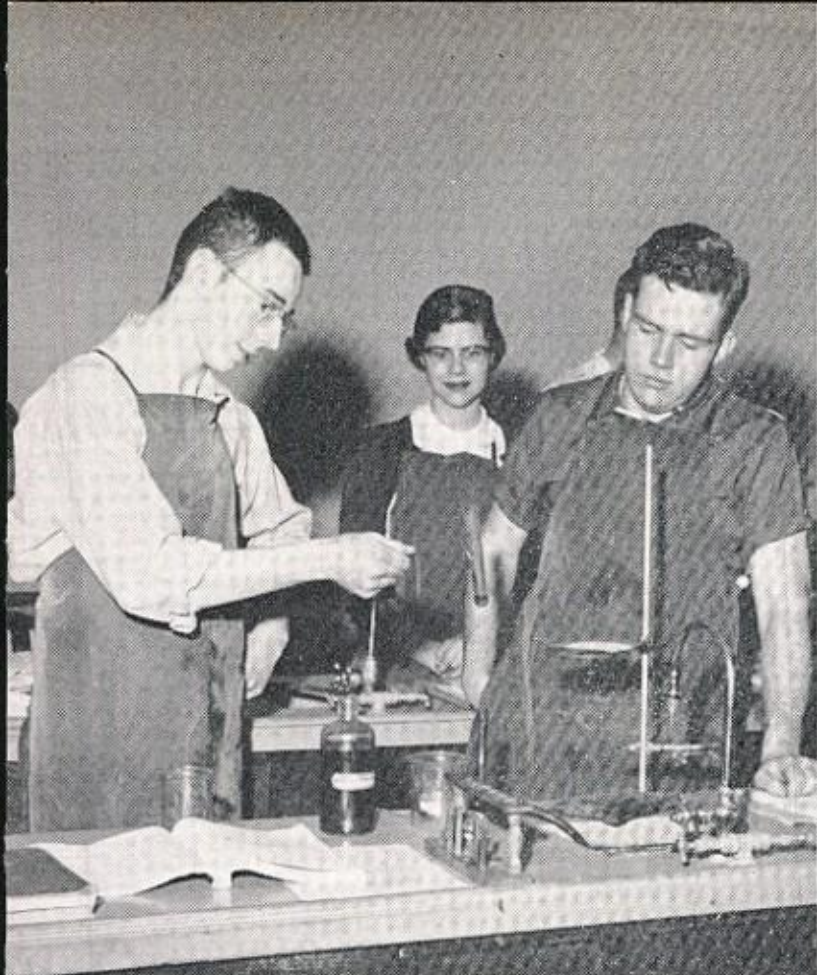

Something new in the L.T.H.S. gym this year was "donkey" basketball. Two of the cheerleaders are riding one of the donkeys used in that game.

A very "shocking" experience was had by many of Mr. Pryor's physics students when they were operating the static electricity machine. One has just received such a "shock."

A banquet was given in honor of the upper ten per cent of the senior class. As you can well see, all are having a very good time.

Working the mimeograph machine are L.T.H.S. girls who intend to go into secretarial work.

We have passed from being underclassmen to upperclassmen; and we hope from being followers into leaders. Upon us lies more responsibility than we have ever before known. We are looking ahead to the tasks which lie before us as the leaders of the school.

Some of us have already assumed great responsibility. We are proud of having juniors as captain of the basketball team, captain of the cheerleaders, president of F.T.A., secretary of G.A.A., and also two outstanding orators who received honors in the V.O.D. and the American Legion Oratorical Contest.

As the school has been building, so too have we advanced. We have seen two new additions to our school come into being while we have been getting the fundamentals of the education, which are to prepare us for college and other walks of life.

To two delighted audiences we presented something new in high school theatre. Our play, "The Night of January 16th," was a court room scene, and two casts of capable juniors gave the scene a very realistic touch. We are very grateful to Mr. Tipler who directed it and helped make it such a success.

The high light of our Christmas vacation was receiving our class rings.

Our activities were many the second semester as we planned for the Junior Prom on May 5th. We also received the results of the junior tests which we took the first semester.

The seniors gave to us a most memorable day when they treated us to a picnic, their last activity before graduation.

CLASS OFFICERS: Mr. Hill, chairman; Ken Norton, vice-president; Greg Brown, president; Terry Jensen, treasurer; George Bobak, secretary.

Sophomores Are Active

This past year seemed to go so quickly that it hardly seems possible that when school starts again we'll be juniors. We felt like freshmen again on the first day of school with so many new classrooms and strange hallways to learn about. We felt that way until we saw freshmen struggling through the old hallways which we knew so well. But the year had plenty to keep us busy. At our first class meeting we elected Greg Brown, president; Ken Norton, vice-president; George Bobak, secretary; and Terry Jensen, treasurer. In the fall the Sophomore class sponsored the L.T.H.S.

Homecoming with our sponsor, Mr. Hill, assisting. The jobs of selling pennants and pins and arranging the election for Homecoming king and queen were left to us.

Many of our boys played on the varsity basketball, baseball, football, and wrestling teams; our girls were very active in their G.A.A. activities, and our two cheerleaders, Pat Drake and Jane Murray, were seen leading cheers for many a Frosh-Soph game.

Having had such a good year, and seeing our way clear in the year ahead, we're looking forward to being upperclassmen—Juniors.

Freshmen Enter Activities

"Here we are at a new school! Gee! It's so big. I bet I'll never find my way." This was the mutual feeling among us that day. We were quite surprised when we arrived. We found an entirely new school, so we thought. However, we were not alone in our feelings, for even the upperclassmen found certain difficulties in finding their way around the school. It was the first year the new section was in use. We found new classrooms, a new cafeteria, and band room in addition to new courses open to us. At first we were very uncertain as to our whereabouts. When it was time for lunch, no one was quite sure where to go, and it was finally decided to just follow the crowd.

Soon we became a part of school life with its fun and responsibilities. Yet, we felt very privileged because we were allowed to participate in so many of the school activities.

Members of our class were able to assist on the Lock and Times staffs. We even had our own band and Chorus. Early in the year the class officers were elected. They were: Jerry Puis, president; Wayne Peterson, vice-president; Bill Peterson, secretary; Kathie Bier, treasurer.

Will we ever forget the leap year dance, "Woman's World?" We were so excited, especially the girls. It was leap year and the girls had an opportunity to invite those upper-class boys, whom they admired so much. During the second semester some of our classmates starred in three one-act plays.

Yet this year also had with the privileges certain responsibilities. For the first time members of our class became monitors. We soon found that we had to do homework and had to obey the rules of our school. Most of us can remember spending some of our time after school with Mr. Gahala during "ninth period." But soon we became accustomed to school life and really became a part of it.

Sitting in front of the huge marble plaque in the lobby of the new auditorium are Mr. and Mrs. James Smith. The plaque is erected in honor of the 27 years of service which Mr. Smith has given to the school.

Among the speakers of the evening was Dr. Leonard Roblee who was a member of the board of education when Mr. Smith was first superintendent here.

Open House

Through the co-operation of the co-chairmen, Mr. Sterling and Miss Emmons, and the members of the Student Council a very successful Open House was held on the evening of November 9. This year's annual observance of National Education Week was dedicated to Mr. James Smith of Glendale, California, former superintendent of Lockport High.

The program started in the gymnasium at 7:30 p.m. After the opening ceremonies, everyone thoroughly enjoyed the splendid musical interpretations of the High School Orchestra and Girls' Glee Club under the capable direction of Mr. Ernest Caneva. Following several short speeches by distinguished guests, Mr. Smith presented the main address of the evening. It was interesting to note the emphasis Mr. Smith put on progress. The new section of our building which is being used for the first time this year speaks for itself as a "Panorama of Progress."

At the close of the program there was the visitation of classrooms directed by Mr. Sterling and Mr. Pryor. At the same time a reception was held in the new cafeteria where refreshments were served. This was co-ordinated by Mrs. Morrison and Miss Emmons.

Our 1955 Open House was a wonderful success. The public responded to the opportunity to visit L.T.H.S. The special dedication to Mr. Smith added warmth and enthusiasm to this event.

Mr. James Smith who was the honored guest and the main speaker at open house this year, is shown addressing the assembled visitors. Mr. Glenn Miller, who was president of the senior class during Mr. Smith's first year of superintendency here, Mrs. James Smith, and Mr. M. DeSandre, president of the board of education, are shown in the background.

Lockport citizens who were instrumental in planning the new addition are shown in the home economics room discussing the open house.

Here the cameraman catches Val Gudac in one of his many antics during a pep assembly. During the school year Val has contributed much to the enjoyment of the student. Shown also in the picture are members of the student council who were in charge of this particular assembly.

The L.T.H.S. pep club shows its enthusiasm during an assembly.

Pep Assemblies

The pep assemblies this year, although not a great many in number, were thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Each assembly was planned and executed by various L.T.H.S. organizations. A prominent figure in almost all of the assemblies was Val Gudac. His slapstick comedy kept the entire student body and faculty in gales of laughter.

One outstanding assembly was the mixing together of a wonderful Porter stew by "Chef"

Gudac. At all assemblies wonderful school spirit was exhibited by every L.T.H.S. student.

Adding a great deal to the pep sessions was the presence of the L.T.H.S. pep band. A big thanks also goes to the cheerleaders for the magnificent job they did. Pep assemblies mean a lot not only to the athletes participating but also to the students who want to stand behind our teams and give them our full support.

A group of L.T.H.S. girls depict the Blue Island cheerleaders in a pep assembly during the basketball season.

The court of the King and Queen: The lovely girls, Bonnie Cagwin, freshman; Judy Pearson, sophomore; Queen Carolyn Kijowski; Joan Boettcher, junior; and Sara-lea Paddock, senior. Their handsome young escorts are: Bob Hill, John Sander, Stu Minen, Jim Macy, and King Bill Burke.

This motley assortment of football players is, in reality, girls of the Junior-Senior class, led by Carol Grikstas at the Homecoming game.

"We'll Skunk 'Em" was the theme of the winning Junior class float. Thanks to all those who helped make it, and to the co-chairman — Kay Murray and Pat Ward.

One of the many floats in the Homecoming parade was the one presented by the Junior play cast. Not only did it represent the "Big Game," but also served as an added plug to attend the Junior play.

Queen Carolyn Kijowski and King Bill Burke look over the large crowd of students and residents of Lockport. Joan Carroll, lovely Junior cheerleader, shows her friendship with dogs as well as people.

Homecoming Highlights

The traditional Homecoming day ceremonies for the football team proved to be a great success again this year. If you were not one of the hundreds of students pictured at the pep rally, or cheering our team at the game, you were an exception, for this year's was the largest turnout ever experienced at L.T.H.S.

Mrs. Fred Holt and Mrs. James Smith made a wise choice when they awarded first place to the junior classes float of a lifelike, animated skunk. Class homerooms also entered several floats and Mr. Snyder's homeroom 228 received second place as the juniors again showed their creative skill with a representation of a jack-in-the-box.

Despite the encouragement of the floats, the team did not "hatch" a victory or "skunk" Kankakee, but they fought hard, and no one felt too downhearted for the big Lock staff dance followed the game.

Immediately preceding their kiss, Bill Burke and Carolyn Kijowski were crowned king and queen by Ken Norton, president of the Sophomore class.

We hope the Homecoming will be as successful next year, and perhaps we might even win the game.

Ken Barone, Marian Adey, and Bucky Bush plan to celebrate the Homecoming with their own "Home Cooking." The "fermented" float was "distilled" by the chorus.

The Sophomore float hit a bull's-eye with its William Tell float, "We Aim to Win."

Suzanne Ayers cross examines John Sample in a scene from the Junior class play. Sandra Ayers is the Judge.

Joyce Carroll shakes an angry finger at Suzanne Ayers in one of the more humorous scenes from the play.

Carole Sue Johnson looks on as Forrest Hartman, playing the part of the D. A., calls his next witnesses: Nancy Vanfossan, and her father, Bill Kapella.

Forrest Hartman, Bill Kapella and Carole Sue Johnson watch as court clerk, Margaret Gorc, swears in the next witness, Mary Alice Hartford. Carol Miranda records the court's proceedings.

Shown in a tense scene are: Forrest Hartman, Suzanne Ayers and Joan Boettcher.

The Juniors Present

A unique type of theater was presented to delighted audiences on November 18th and 19th by the Junior Class. "The Night of January 16th" was an extraordinary court room drama which follows American court procedure accurately, making the play highly educational as well as enormously entertaining. This play differs from the ordinary in that it is a comedy drama with a very unusual ending.

This was the first play directed by Mr. William Tipler at Lockport. Assisting Mr. Tipler was Barb Garson.

As the curtain opens the court is ready to begin, but the Judge has not yet made his appearance. The prosecution and the defense are ready at their respective tables. Presently the prison matron brings in Karen Andre, the defendant.

The unique feature of the play was the fact that the jury was composed of members of the audience who listened to the testimonies and then actually decided for themselves whether the defendant was or was not guilty of the murder of Bjorn Faulkner. The play itself consists of testimony given by various witnesses who were connected with the case.

Outstanding performances were given by the individuals who played Mrs. John Hutchins, the janitor's wife who saw the murder, Magda Sven-son who was Bjorn Faulkner's housekeeper, Larry Regan, a gangster, who loved Karen Andre and supposedly black mailed Bjorn Faulkner, and Roberta Van Renselaer, a night club dancer whose husband's body was substituted for Bjorn Faulkner. On both nights Karen was found to be not guilty, but the case was so well presented that there was doubt in many people's minds as to her innocence.

The members of the cast were: Karen Andre, Danielle Pauly, Joan Boettcher; District Attorney Flint, Sandra Ayers, Forrest Hartman; Defense Attorney Stevens, Suzanne Ayers; her secretary, Kay Murray, Linda Cappelletto; Flint's secretary, Virginia Strahanoski, Carole Sue Johnson; prison matron, Judy Rodeghiero, Dolly Grubisich; Bailiff, Marian Adey; Judge Heath, Sandra Ayers, Forrest Hartman; Clerk of the Court, Margaret Gorc; Dr. Kirkland, Tom Mandeville; Mrs. John Hutchins, Sue Ausec, Marge Rodeghiero; Homer Van Fleet, John Sample; Elmer Sweeney, Richard Vargas; Nancy Lee Faulkner, Nancy Vanfossan, JoAnne Breihan; Magda Svenson, Joyce Carroll, Gloria Jean Miller; John Graham Whitfield, Bill Kapella; Jane Chandler, Mary Alice Hartford, Denise Crabbe; Sigurd Jungquist, Bev Rider, Janet Geissler; Larry Regan, Tom Benham; Roberta Van-Renselaer, Ellen Thomas, Kathy Boland; Stenographer, Carol Miranda, Jackie Scheidt; Court Secretary, Judy Sprinkle, Pat Ward.

Third row: Sandy Farnsworth, Virginia Riley, Carol Michaelson, Nahon Frischia, Eleanor Nystrom, Nancee Gannaway.

Second row: Jeanne Bjorkman, George Bush, Audrey Gosack, Bette Thomas, Peggy Carter, Betty Hubrich, Bonnie McCarthy, Carol Schifler, Phyllis Francisco, Mary Preuter, Karen Sandstrom.

First row: Carolyn Kijowski, Glen Young, Butch Caneva, Saralee Paddock, Carole Sherman, Barb Young, Carol Alexander, Doris Vahle, Connie Gutierrez, Virginia Buck.

The Seniors Present

Edna Ferber's and George S. Kaufman's three-act comedy, "Stage Door," was presented by the senior class on March 22 and 23. The play was directed by Mr. William Tipler, with Carolyn Kijowski as student director.

The setting is a New York boarding house owned by Mrs. Orcutt where career-minded girls display their hopes and aspirations to be on stage.

The plot revolves around Terry Randall, a talented actress who tries very hard to find a job on stage, and when she does get one, she is soon without a job again, for the show in which she has a part closes. Her roommate, Jean, is given an offer to go to Hollywood, which she accepts, and tries to persuade Terry to go, but Terry declines the offer.

Terry has little success in obtaining a theatrical job, so she gets a job as a clerk in a department store.

Keith Burgess, her boyfriend, succumbs to the glamour of Hollywood by going there to write plays. When Terry sees him when he returns a year later, she is disappointed to find he has changed and therefore loses interest in him.

David Kingsley, a motion-picture man who has taken a personal interest in her, comes to the rescue by giving her the lead in a play he plans to produce.

Contrast in the play is provided by Bernice, a girl without talent but much determination, and Mrs. Orcutt, an elderly woman whose theatrical days are over only in reality. Interest is built by Kaye, who gives up in despair after many hardships; Louise who gets married; Jean, a beautiful girl but a mediocre actress who goes into pictures; and Keith Burgess, Terry's old beau and a playwright who goes "Hollywood."

The cast, most parts of which were double-cast, included: Olga Brandt, Audrey Gosack, Connie Gutierrez; Mattie, Katie Barlow; Big Mary, Carol Alexander, Judy Gottry; Little Mary, Carol Michaelson, Peggy Carter; Madeleine, Virginia Buck, Mary Pruter; Judith, Barb Young, Dorlene Sample; Ann, Virginia Riley, Nahon Frischia; Kaye, Nancy Herman; Jean, Jeanne Bjorkman, Nancee Gannaway; Bobby, Saralea Paddock; Louise, Anna Mae Longhini, Eleanor Nystrom; Susan, Karen Sandstrom, Doris Vahle; Pat, Sara Jo Wierson, Carole Grikstas; Kendall, Candy Knutson. Sandy Farnsworth; Terry Randall, Pat O'Brien; Tony, Betty Hubrich, Bonnie McCarthy; Ellen, Betty Thomas; Mrs. Orcutt, Carol Schifler, Judy Eneix; Frank, Jim Lunningham; Sam Hastings, Butch Caneva; Jimmy Deaveraux, Ray Schuler; Fred Powell, Don Schildgen; Lou Milhauser, Dave Hall; David Kingsley, Rich Lindberg; Keith Burgess, Glenn Young; Dr. Randall, George Bush; Adolph Gretzl, Fred Rodriguez; Billy, Don Schildgen; Larry, George Bush.

In an early morning scene from the senior class play we see Eleanor Nystrom, Dorlene Sample, Doris Vahle, Betty Thomas, Bonnie McCarthy, Pat O'Brien, Carole Grikstas, and Sandra Farnsworth.

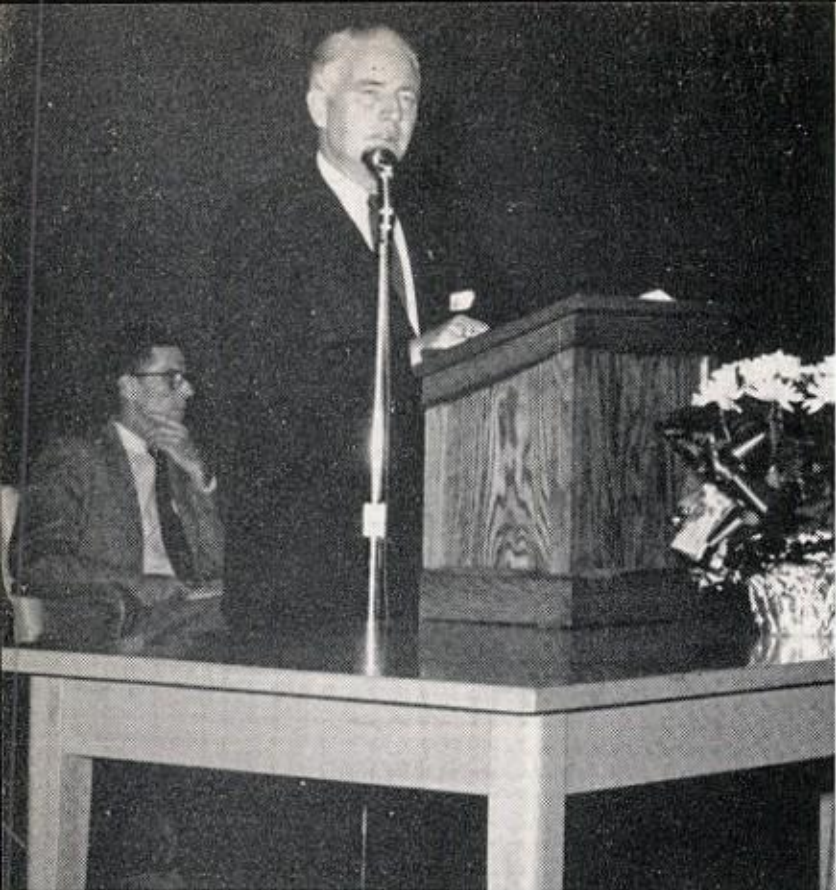

At dress rehearsal Bonnie McCarthy and Carolyn Kijowski apply make-up to Fred Rodriguez and Doris Vahle, while Raymond Schuler and Nancy Gannaway look on.

"I told you she was different from the rest of the girls," screams Pat O'Brien to Judy Eneix and Doris Vahle, after the suicide of one of the boarding-house girls.

Fred Rodriguez and Nancy Gannaway glance over their script as Steve Platko plays the piano.

Jeanne Bjorkman, who has been away to Hollywood, comes back and tells her experiences to Audrey Gosack, Carol Sherman, Ana Mae Longhini, Betty Hubrich, Carol Michaelson, and Saralee Pad-dock.

Holiday Programs Presented

VETERANS DAY PROGRAM: Many patriotic organizations and citizens of the community along with the student body and faculty met in the gymnasium on November 9th for the Veterans Day Program.

The United States Naval Reserve Unit from Joliet furnished a fine Color Guard for our ceremonies.

The honorable Warren L. Wood, Representative of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, was the main speaker. After his interesting speech Mr. Wood directed the band in the playing of John Phillip Sousa's classic, "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Mr. E. C. Snyder, head of the Social Science Department and chairman of the program, presented a program of great interest to all. With the help of the boys from his history classes Mr. Snyder told of the many wars in which the U. S. participated. After each narration a boy marched in wearing the military uniform of that time, while the band played fitting tunes for each entrance. After the playing of "Taps" Rev. Gilbert Bengtson gave the benediction.

Veterans Day is truly a day to remember for on that day we honor men who gave their lives so that we could breathe the air of freedom.

Representative Warren L. Wood looks very serious as he talks to the student body in an assembly on Veterans' Day. In the background is Mr. Earl Snyder who was in charge of the program.

During the Veterans' Day program several boys of the American History classes wear the uniforms of the various wars in which American citizens have been involved. Pictured are: Ed McCauley, Revolutionary; Joseph Eaton, 1812; Ed Lein and Mike Laughran, Civil War; Clare Bump, Spanish American; Tom Benham, World War I; and Don Dergenski, World War II.

Surrounding the beautiful copy of a stained glass window done by the art classes are the students who participated in the Christmas program. Back row: Bob Hill, Douglas Meadows, Richard Padilla, Wayne Barnett, Steve Platko, George Bush, Jay Mau, Suzanne Ayers, Kay Bensing, Sue Rowley, Bette Thomas, Anne Grubisich.

CHRISTMAS DAY PROGRAM:

There is a certain feeling in the air that comes only at Christmas and this Christmas was no exception; for, as we assembled in the auditorium, we sensed that holiday spirit.

The first thing on the program was the reading of the Christmas story which was chronologically arranged from Isaiah, Matthew, and Luke and given by three students. Next came a few Christmas carols from the chorus, under the direction of Mr. Caneva. Charlotte Grant read Christopher Morley's "The Tree That Didn't Get Trimmed." After more carols by the chorus, one of the classics of all Christmas stories, "The Littlest Angel," by Charles Tozwell, was read.

LINCOLN DAY PROGRAM:

This year's Lincoln Day Program consisted of two parts. The first part was a choralogue which is quite different from the other programs we have seen. The choralogue, directed by Miss Urban, was called "Lincoln, The Lonely, The Great."

The second part was a one act comedy, "The Missing Link," which portrayed a modern-day adolescent whose experiences were similar to those of Abraham Lincoln. Mr. Snyder, with the help of the history students, presented this part of the program.

We see Kathy Boland and Danielle Pauly in an exciting scene from the Lincoln Day play, "The Missing Link."

Kathy Boland and Tom Nelson look on as Bill Kapella threatens Jay Mau in a scene from "The Missing Link."

Caught in a practice session for the Lincoln Day Program Choralogue, "Lincoln, the Lonely, the Great," are: Tom Benham, as Lincoln; back row: Myrna Allen, Candace Knutson, Nahon Friscia, Peggy Wells, Marian McGinn, Sandra Farnsworth, Carol Alexander, Fred Rodriguez, and Glenn Carlson; front row: Dorene Sample, Sandy Ayers, Eleanor Nystrom, Saralee Paddock, George Bush, Forrest Hartman.

"Kandy Kane Kapers"

On the evening of December 23rd, girls who were in striking holiday dresses and their escorts who attended the fourth Annual Music Department Dance entered into a world of Christmas fantasy. They found themselves enveloped in Holiday spirit as they were surrounded by "Kandy Kanes" with a huge Christmas tree in the midst of their path. A highlight of the festive evening was the crowning of the king, Burt Nelson, and the queen, Phyllis Francisco.

A look of expectation is seen on all faces as Steve Platko, band president, draws the names of the king and queen.

Phyllis Francisco and Burt Nelson appear very happy at being chosen king and queen as they and the crowd prepare to start the Grand March.

Everyone seems to be having fun as the camera-man catches them in the midst of the Grand March.

Leading the grand march by the snow white Christmas tree were Phyllis Francisco and Burt Nelson, king and queen of the fourth annual music department dance.

"It's A Woman's World"

On March third the student council sponsored a leap year dance to prove that "It's a Woman's World." As the girls arrived in their attractive spring outfits, their escorts soon became aware of how much the world revolves around its women.

The gymnasium was decorated with festoons of balloons hanging from a false ceiling of paper. Dotting the walls were miniature world's. The bandstand occupied by Gene Victor's Orchestra was hung with paper and many balloons.

After the crowning of the king, George Claussen, and queen, Marjean Martin, by Ken Barone, captain of the varsity basketball team, everyone had a wonderful time breaking the myriad of balloons which were found to be in every nook and cranny of the gym. Leap year comes only once every four years and all the girls decided it was quite an experience to find themselves in the fellow's position. They all found out that it is hard to ask for a date.

It must be intermission since everyone is keeping Sandy Rediehs and Arla Schroll so very busy handing out cups of cold punch.

Apparently Gene Victor's orchestra is playing a very dreamy waltz as shown by the intent expressions seen on the faces of the dancers.

In this picture the photographer not only caught some couples in the Grand March but also the balloons which were hung in festoons all over the gymnasium. A little while later everyone had a wonderful time breaking them.

We see Stexe Platko looking on as George Claussen, king, kisses Marjean Martin, queen, at the student council dance, "It's a Woman's World."

Joan Alexander, queen, and Tom Broderick, king, of the 1955 prom, "Manhattan Moods," pose in front of the enormous tea pot doorway.

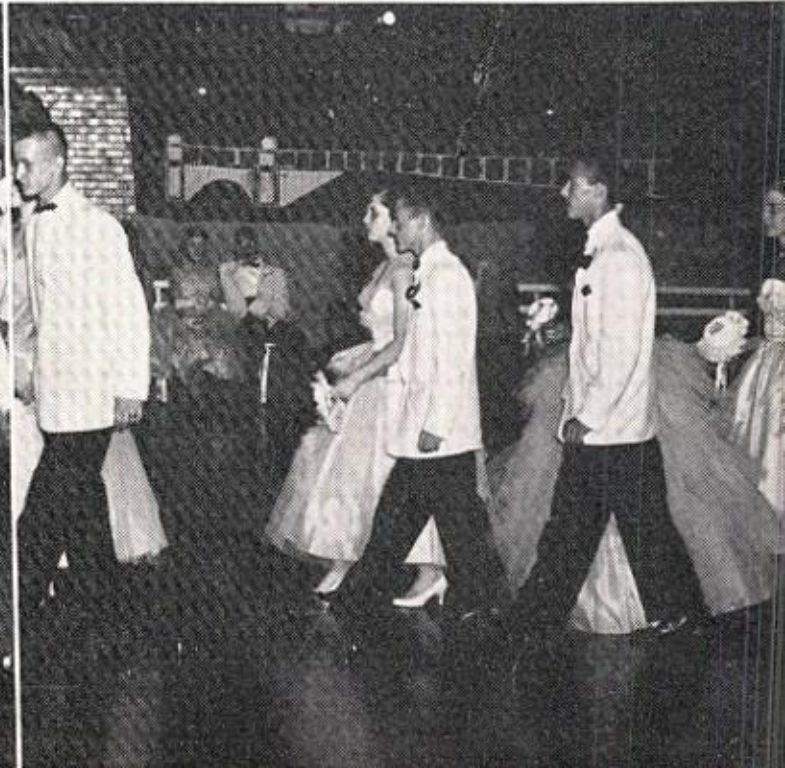

L. T. H. S. juniors, seniors, and their escorts join in the long parade of couples during the Grand March.

"Are you sure this is the way we go?" seems to be the question as one group of dancers turns off during the Grand March.

Everyone seems to be having fun trying to keep up with the inside couple when four couples turn off as the end of the Grand March draws near.

Several couples appear to be enjoying the luxury of the park benches which constituted part of the "Manhattan Moods" decorations as they watch others who are enjoying the Grand March.

"MANHATTAN MOODS"

Girls in bouffant formals and their escorts, who attended the Junior-Senior Prom given for the class of 1955, were surrounded by the enchanting mood of Manhattan as they danced.

During the Grand March, King Tom Broderick and Queen Joan Alexander led the couples through Central Park where Tony Prince's orchestra was seated in the park bandstand. From there they could view Manhattan Harbor, Greenwich Village, and the intriguing Manhattan skyline.

A huge traffic light, which hung in the center of the gym, added the finishing touch to "Manhattan Moods."

"DREAMER'S HOLIDAY"

Through the work of the various committees, the class of '57 presented the seniors with their interpretation of a "Dreamer's Holiday" on the evening of May 5.

The committee chairmen who worked hard with their members to make the prom a success were: Thomas Nelson, construction; Kay Murray and Pat Ward, decorations; Sandra Ayers and Carol Miranda, invitations; Suzanne Ayers, entertainment; Marian Adey, refreshments, Jonetta Poston, programs.

Outstanding Students of the Year

After four years of intense schooling, during which time some work has been exceptionally well done, the time has come for the best to be honored. The progress which was made by the outstanding seniors scholastically is very evident when the highest scholastic honors are bestowed on Judith Curtis, valedictorian; Dorlene Sample and Jeanne Bjorkman, salutatorians.

The activity awards also go to two very outstanding seniors who were not only active in their four years at L.T.H.S., but also studious. These awards went to Dorlene Sample and Jim FitzPatrick.

The Bausch and Lomb award to the outstanding scientific senior was presented to Edward Gray. A science award was presented for the first time this year by the Joliet Section of the American Chemical Society. It was based on the individuals general character, originality, independence of thought, ability to solve problems, good laboratory and study habits, and general academic background. The award was presented to Richard Padilla.

The American Legion Awards presented each year to the outstanding senior citizens were awarded to Judith Curtis and Jim FitzPatrick.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Award was presented to Jim FitzPatrick as the D.A.R. Award was to Judith Curtis.

The Honorary Mathematics Award, which was determined by a competitive test, was presented to Harold Solley.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY:

National honor society members are chosen by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service and character. Fifteen percent of the graduating class may be elected, this group must be chosen from the upper one third of the class scholastically. To be eligible, a candidate must have been a student at L.T.H.S. for two years. The members of the senior class who were distinguished by the honor this year were: Jeanne Bjorkman, Richard Bischoff, George Bush, Glenn Carlson, Judith Curtis, Judith Eneix, James FitzPatrick, Nahon Friscia, Nancee Gannaway, Edward Gray, Nancy Herman, Richard Lindberg, Anna Mae Longhini, Burton Nelson, Eleanor Nystrom, Patricia O'Brien, Ronald Otto, Richard Padilla, Saralea Paddock, Stephen Platko, Mary Preuter, Stuart Reiter, Virginia Riley, Dorlene Sample, Simone Vaught, Sara Jo Wierson, Rosanne Wawczak, and Barbara Young.

QUILL AND SCROLL:

Quill and Scroll is an international honor society for high school journalists. Juniors and seniors are eligible for membership if they have done outstanding work on the school publications, maintaining a high enough scholastic average to be in the upper one third of their class. The students who have worked so diligently on the Lock and Times and thereby receiving honor of being in Quill and Scroll this year are: Sandra Ayers, Richard Bischoff, Jeanne Bjorkman, Kathy Boland, Joan Boettcher, Glenn Carlson, Joan Carroll, Carol Cooper, Judith Curtis, Nancee Gannaway, Barbara Garson, Audrey Gosack, Forrest Hartman, Nancy Herman, Bob Hill, Marge Munari, Eleanor Nystrom, Pat O'Brien, Ronald Otto, Saralea Paddock, Richard Padilla, Jonetta Poston, Beverly Rider, Virginia Riley, Dorlene Sample, John Sample, Simone Vaught, Pat Ward, Sara Jo Wierson, Barbara Young.

Sandra Ayers, Voice of Democracy winner, and Forrest Hartman, American Legion Oratorical winner, are shown discussing the speeches which won them their respective honors. Much time and effort went into the preparation and delivery of their original orations.

TIONS

The L.T.H.S. Band, because of its outstanding performances, is asked to participate at many events throughout the state. They are shown at an event in a neighboring community.

The band of L.T.H.S. has changed a lot since 1927 but that change has been for the better. Ably directed by Mr. Ernest O. Caneva since 1933 the band has continually turned in sterling performances.

In their annual spring concert which was held on March 11, the band showed their great versatility by playing such numbers as Verdi's "Rigoletto," Roger's "Victory at Sea," and "The Two Imps," a cornet duet, which was played by Janet Schumann and our own Bob Hill. Student participation in leadership capacities marked the keynote of the memorable concert.

An outstanding event of the concerts for the past two years has been the appearance of an especially talented grade school musician. This year a very attractive young lady, Janet Schumann, from Central-Kelvin Grove Elementary Schools, made her appearance in "A Trumpeter's Lullaby" by Leroy Anderson. Mr. Caneva announced that next year another grade school student will be presented, but that students will in the future be chosen by a contest this is to be run among the grade school students.

Mr. John L. Paynter, director of bands at Northwestern University, was the most prominent of the guest conductors at the concert. Other guest directors included: Mr. Robert Haddick, band director at Kelvin Grove School; Mr. H. Tatroe, assistant to Mr. Caneva; Miss Anna Mae Longhini who directed the combined band and chorus in the number, "Tea For Two," and Steve Platko who directed the band in his own number "Tone Poem-Resurrection." Mr. Caneva introduced Steve and congratulated him on the work which he has done.

The group has become so proficient in their work that they have been asked to appear many places. This past year they were asked to appear, in addition to many other places, at Northwestern University where they were very well received.

In addition to many other activities, the band also sponsors an annual dance which is held at Christmas time. Each year the decorations are kept in the Christmas motif. The dance this year was called "Kandy Kane Kappers." A grand time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. E. Caneva, L.T.H.S. music department head, is shown going over some important work with Mr. H. Tatroe, assistant band director.

CHORUS

L.T.H.S. Chorus

Chorus officers: Kent Nordenberg, treasurer; Terry Logan, secretary; Sara Jo Wierson, president; George Bush, vice-president.

Not only the band at L.T.H.S. but also the chorus can be seen making great strides of progress.

A select group of 40 chorus members and the orchestra, which provides fine music on many occasions, presented a program for the Tri-County Principals' convention which was held at the Congress Hotel. They used such numbers as a "Tribute to Romberg," "Romanian Rhapsody," and "Night and Day." The group was extremely well received and comments such as: "the voices were so mature," "the orchestra added a great deal," "a fine group of musicians," could be heard throughout the audience. It was because of this performance that the chorus was invited to orchestra hall in Chicago to hear the Augustana College Choir on April 16.

The chorus, in their part of the spring concert, proved that they too are very versatile by doing such numbers as "Tea for Two," and "Musetta's Waltz Song" from La Boheme. They also used a medley of tunes from the stage production "Brigadoon." A highlight of the program was when the choir did the prison scene from "Il Travatore." The soloists were Sara Jo Wierson, Nancee Gannaway, Anna Mae Longhini, and Judy Eneix.

The Freshman chorus, though it works primarily on basic music principles, can turn out some very fine music and there is a great deal of friendly rivalry between the two choruses. The members of the Freshman chorus all look forward to the day when they will move up to the "Senior" group.

Band Banquet

The band banquet this year was a gala affair. Mr. John Paynter, director of bands at Northwestern University, was master of ceremonies, and he succeeded in keeping everyone in stitches. This banquet was held for the first time in our own cafeteria and apparently everyone enjoyed its roominess and comfort. A wonderful meal and evening were enjoyed by all. Everyone agreed that this was a banquet to be remembered for a long time to come.

Third row: Margaret Gorc, Barbara Crnkovic, Ronald Otto, Forrest Hartman, George Denick, Fred Rodriguez, Steve Johnson.

Second row: Sara Jo Wiersen, Mary Alice Hartford, Sue Ayers, Judy Ennix, Judy Eichhorn, Audrey Gosack, Eleanor Nystrom, Simone Vaught.

First row: Nancee Gannaway, Lorraine Slack, Roberta Melovic, Kathleen Ludwig, Pat Copeland, Jonetta Poston, Judy Curtis, Carolyn Kijowski, Sandra Ayers.

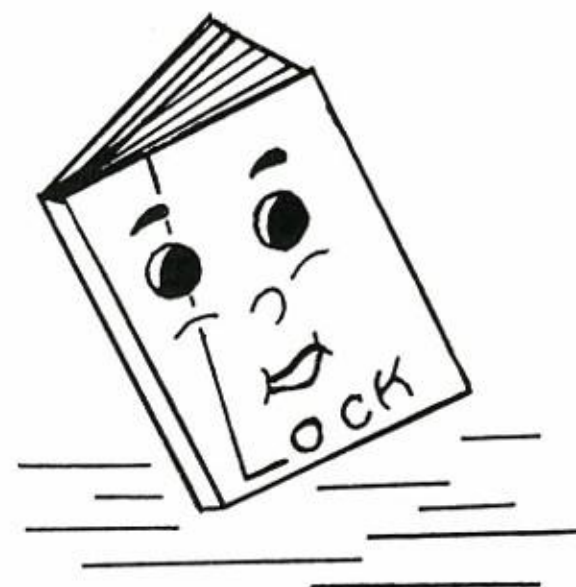

The Lock

PROGRESS has come to the Lock in the many years it has been published here at L.T.H.S. From a very small beginning it has emerged as a well-organized activity.

The Lock Editorial Staff has been the proving ground for many young and talented journalists. Much experience is gained in setting up the dummy, writing copy, and devising new and varied identifications for the many pictures throughout a Lock.

The Editorial Staff not only provides an outlet for talented writers, but also it gives vent to the talent of many art students and amateur photographers. If the truth be known however, when the deadline draws near everyone on the staff pitches in and even photographers can be found helping out with copy.

A big responsibility falls on the editorial staff to each year turn out a new and better Lock. Each LOCK STAFF has progressed to make each LOCK a better LOCK.

Co-editors Simone Vaught and Richard Bischoff study some of the problems that arise in the production of the LOCK.

George Denick, Sue Ayers, and Glenn Carlson examine photos to be included in the book. George is in charge of photography while Glenn handles sports, and Sue directs the art work.

Georg Denick is shown working on records, one of the jobs he performs as Lock business manager. He also serves on the editorial staff as a photographer.

These five girls have important jobs on the Lock Business Staff. Standing: Darlene DePra, subscription co-chairman; Sue Ausec, assistant business manager. Seated: Kristin Ehn, dance chairman; Anne Grubisich, picture chairman; Nancy Herman, subscription co-chairman.

Lock Business Staff

If it were not for the efforts of the Business Staff of the LOCK, the progress that has been made on the LOCK book itself could not possibly have been achieved.

It is the responsibility of the LOCK business staff to make up the deficit which comes about when the student body pays only a portion of what the LOCK actually costs. This deficit is made up through the efforts of the business staff in the planning and carrying out of the LOCK Staff dances. The dances are held after all home games during the basketball and football season.

The efforts of the business staff go at times unrewarded, but when the LOCK is distributed their efforts come to the front. Many thanks go to the business Staff. THANKS ! ! !

of the co-editors along with their able supervisor, Mr. John W. Gahala, sponsor. One of the important links in the chain of the "Times" is the news editors, whose duty is to write feature articles. We can't forget the reporters and columnists who present the interesting facts and fun. Necessary to the financial departments are the people who work on advertising. General information, humor, and activities are the basic sections comprising yours newspaper.

Without the united effort of the staff made possible by each and every "Times" staff member, you would not be able to read and enjoy the true representation of the events during your school year.

Future Teachers of America

The Edward F. Worst Chapter of Future Teachers, with Mrs. Shoop as sponsor, is in its third year at L.T.H.S.

At its meetings every other Thursday after school, the members are able to hear educators and people interested in the teaching profession speak about the advantages and opportunities in teaching, and to form the qualities essential for a teacher.

Within the last year the club, with 43 members, entertained visiting F.T.A. clubs from the Lockport area and worked in the concession stands at basketball and football games. The field trips which the club took were: visiting special-education classes for exceptional children in Joliet grade schools; making regular visits to the Lutheran Home for children; sponsoring Senior visitation to schools for observing and assisting teachers; and attending the I.A.T.F.A. State Convention.

Helping the girls who are interested in the nursing profession meet the ever-present demand for nurses is the aim of the Future Nurses Club sponsors: Mrs. Mylon Lorenzen, Mrs. William Worst, and Miss Margaret Taylor, faculty sponsor.

They have made '56 a good year by making these things possible: first, the picnic at Dellwood Park, checking and taking coats at the basketball games, making cancer bandages, helping sell county tuberculosis Christmas seals, entertaining the Future Nurses Club of Wilmington, helping at school with freshman physicals, taking a field trip to St. Joseph's Hospital, choosing Providence Hospital for the seniors on their field trip, visiting Guardian Angel Home on Sunday afternoons, entertaining their mothers at a Mother-Daughter Tea and having Dr. John Hummel, Pediatrician; Captain Shirley Hamilton, Army Nurses Corps; Yvonne Raboin, R.N.; and Mrs. Virginia Hutchinson, R.N.; and Mr. Michael Faletti Superintendent of Sunny Hill Sanatorium as their guest speakers, conducting a workshop for the sponsors and representatives of eleven F.N.C. in this area, attending the State Rally at Alton, and viewing several interesting films.

Future Farmers

Along with the addition of a new Vocational Agriculture shop and course, the Future Farmers, an organization new to L.T.H.S. was formed. The officers elected at their first meeting were: Stuart Reiter, president; Larry Burnworth, vice-president; Don Cagwin, treasurer; Merold Yates, and Sherman Reiter, co-reporters; Ron Foster, sentinel.

The F.F.A. is designed to supplement the training which the Voc-Ag students receive in their classes, and the Lockport Chapter is a part of the National Future Farmers Organization.

During the F.F.A. meetings held, the members are given opportunities to qualify for election to the degrees of "Green Horn," "Chapter Farmer," "State Farmer," and "American Farmer."

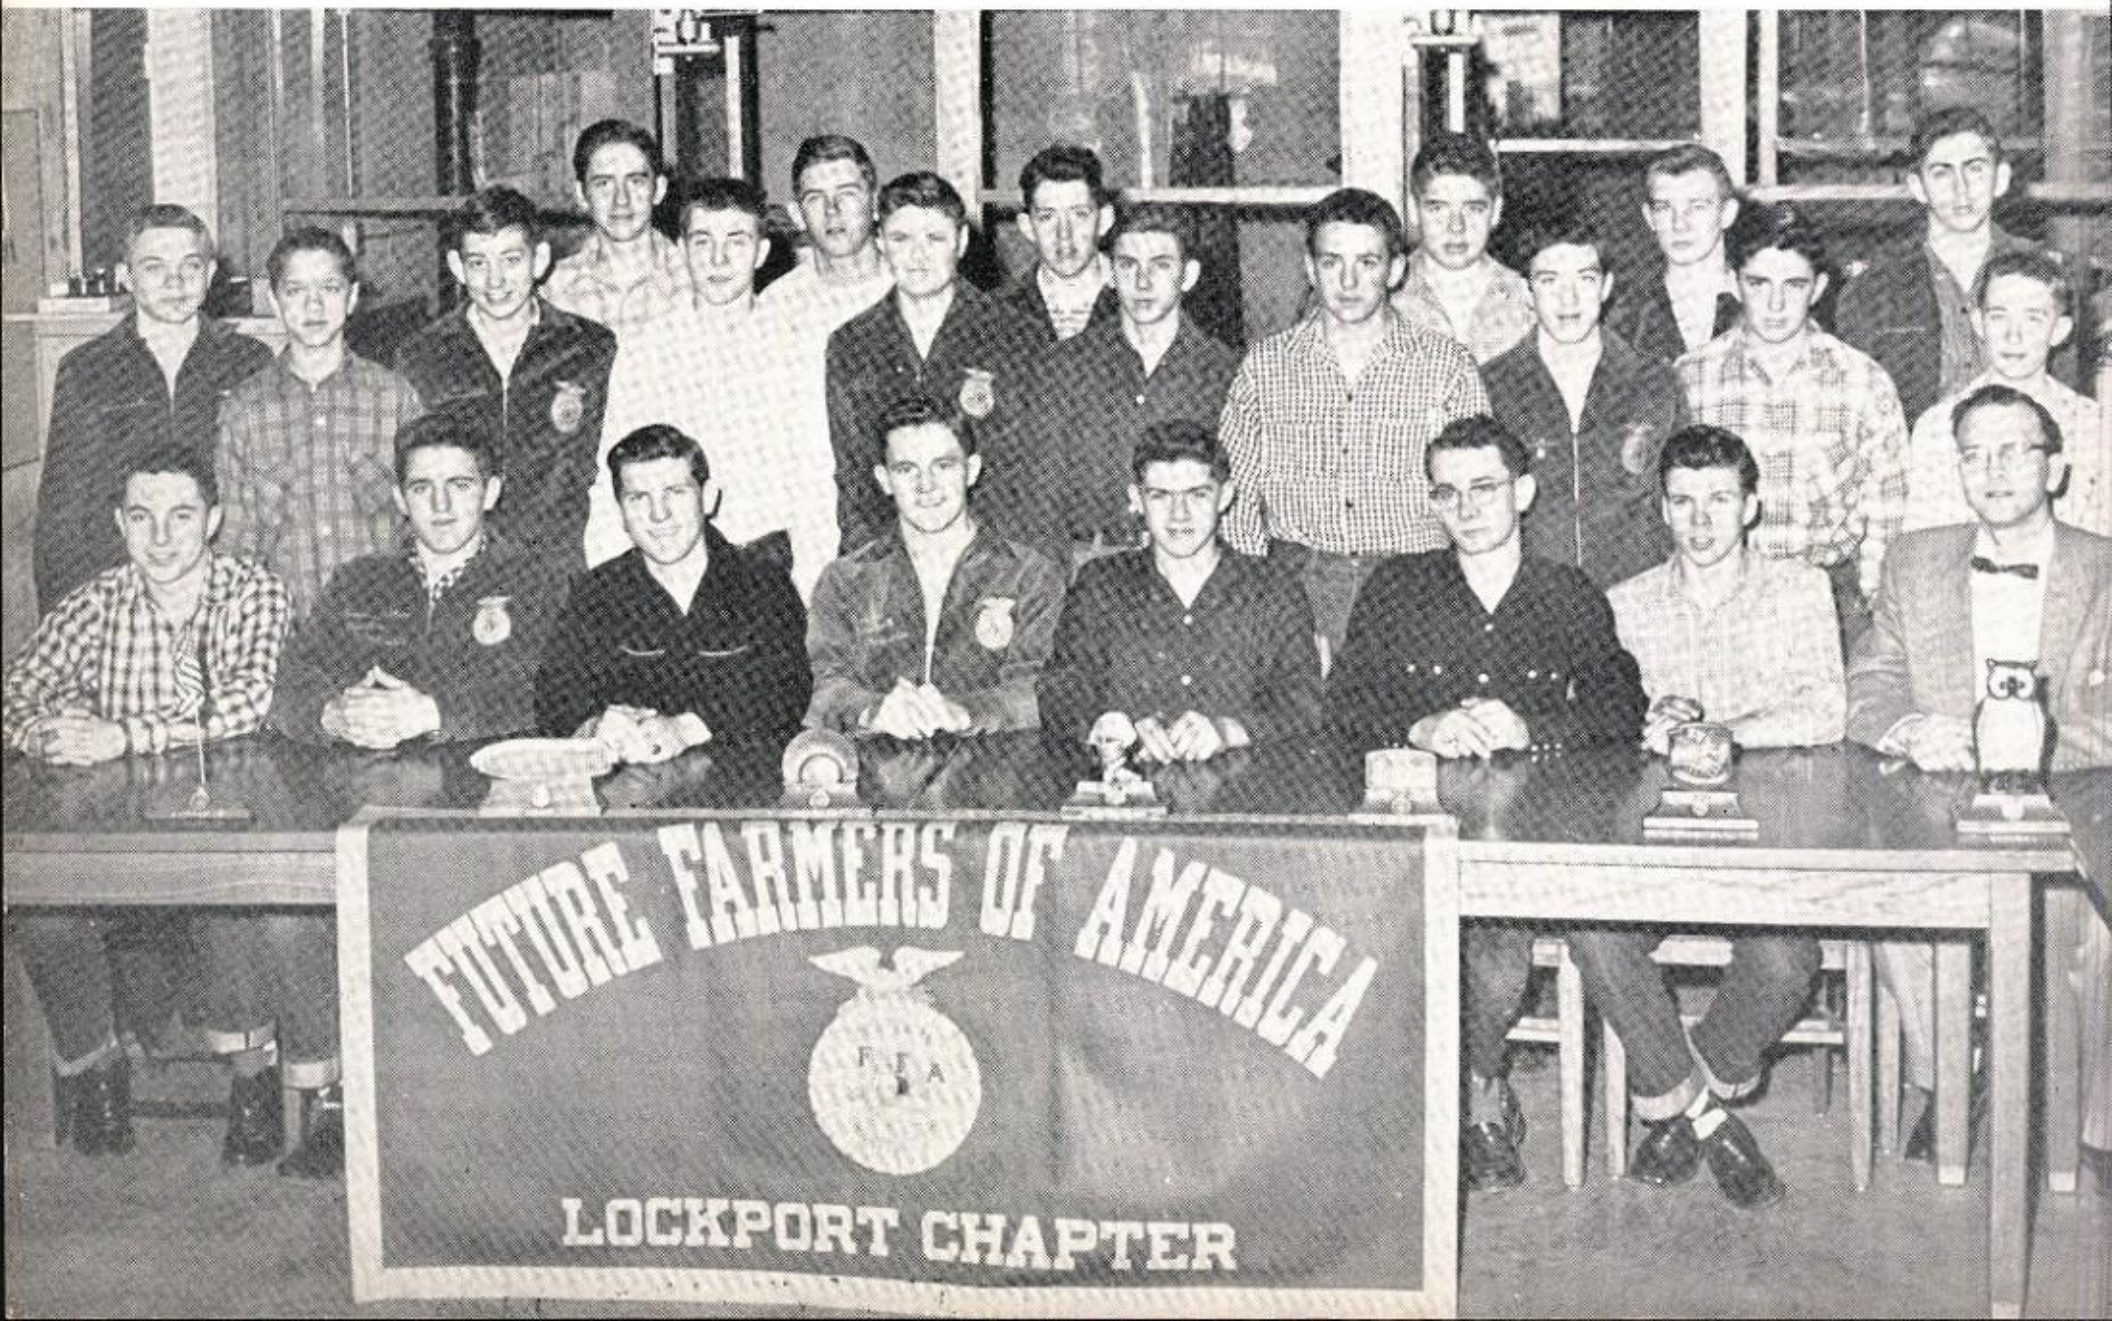

In their first year, the club members sponsored a donkey basketball game and a very successful paper drive; they also sold garden and grass seed and concrete hog troughs.

The boys are guided in learning the phases of farming as big business by Mr. Lawrence, their sponsor.

Among the many organizations at L.T.H.S., the Junior Red Cross is one of the most active as well as representative. Delegates are chosen from each homeroom. However, anyone who wishes may attend meetings and participate in activities.

Members were very active this year, carrying out a full schedule of activities. Among these was making flexahexagons for hospitals in the vicinity. Entertainment committees, consisting of members of the student body; were also sent to many of the hospitals, orphans' homes and other institutions in Will County.

Early last fall the Junior Red Cross sponsored a membership drive. At this time homeroom representatives asked the students to contribute to the drive and thus become members.

In the spring the Junior Red Cross collected pencils, combs, crayons, and soap which they put in gift boxes. These boxes were to be sent overseas.

Miss O'Brien directed the activities of the organization, and during her absence Mrs. Buckley carried on the work of the group.

Council

Our school government, the Student Council, is represented by the students through a member of each homeroom, the presidents of the school clubs, and the editors of the school publications. Mr. Pryor is the club sponsor.

Because of its large membership, the council was divided into the steering, welfare, social, program, and leadership and training committees to allow it to function smoothly.

During the year the council was responsible for the planning of the pep sessions, assemblies, and the annual open house. Members were also in charge of the sale of used books at the beginning of the school year, and during the football and basketball seasons they worked in the concession stand at athletic events. As a part of the Christmas festivities, decorations were placed about the school. Members sorted and delivered Christmas cards that were deposited in a "mail box" located in the main hall.

A monitor system was established during the second semester. In March a Clean-up Campaign was conducted to encourage students to take more pride in their school.

No year would be complete without the annual Student Council Dance. This year it was a Leap Year Dance entitled "It's a Woman's World." A "Pink and Charcoal Bop Hop" was held during the first semester and another late in April.

Student Council members have had a very busy and successful year.

The office assistants who aid the staff by typing, picking up absence lists, and performing other duties are: Ken Spangler, Sue Rowley, Steve Johnson and Evelyn Krohn.

Students

The student help in the library, office, and cafeteria is important not only to the staffs but to the student aids as well, for it gives the students the opportunity to learn the operation of the respective groups.

In the office the aids collect the morning absent sheets and make telephone calls to the homes of the absentees.

The cafeteria aids, the largest group of student assistants, help prepare the food, pass it out to the students, and wash the dishes. The monitors in the cafeteria and the cashiers are also a part of this group.

The third group of assistants is the library aids who work in the library during their free period. Their duties consist of checking out books, taking attendance, and taking care of the library passes.

Through the efforts of these groups much work is accomplished, and they perform a valuable service to the school.

Projectionist Club

The Projectionists Club is one of the most important organizations in our school. This is true because only members of this club are permitted to operate any of the school's projection equipment. As the enrollment of the school increased this year, so did the responsibility of this club. However, its work was made easier because three new sound projectors and other new projection equipment was purchased by the school.

Last September, when the club was organized, cards were issued to all members, and any one who was to operate any of this equipment must have had such a card. At the various meetings during the year, Dr. Paul Jorgenson, the sponsor, explained the operation of the equipment. Besides instruction, members would demonstrate their skill in the operation of any one piece of equipment. A member, having successfully passed this examination, would then have this signified on the card which he had received earlier in the year. In this way, the equipment was capably handled.

PROJECTIONIST OFFICERS: Forrest Hartman, president; George Bobak, vice-president; Gerald Widner, treasurer.

G.A.A. SPONSORS: Mrs. Anderson, Miss Olson and Miss Weick discuss some of the activities of the organization.

G.A.A. Interests Many

The ever increasing enrollment at L.T.H.S. has provided a greater interest in the activities of the G.A.A. To retain this interest G.A.A. has had to expand their program to an even greater degree than that of previous years. This year's sponsors, Miss Olson, Miss Weick, and Mrs. Anderson, have spent many long hours instructing and encouraging the girls in worthwhile activities. The time was well spent, however, because G.A.A. gave the girls a chance to prove their good sportsmanship as well as develop their character.

As an outlet for our sports-minded girls, the G.A.A. offers activities the year around. At the beginning of the school year tennis, volleyball, and riding occurred. Throughout the winter months the girls were kept busy with basketball, bowling, and life-saving. The last activities are golf and tumbling which are held in the last months of school.

As a reward for their endeavors various awards are received by the girls. For each hour that a girl participates in an activity she receives 3 points. To obtain the first award, which is a pin, 24 points are necessary. Two local awards which require 75 and 150 points are a small L and a larger L with G.A.A. imprinted on it. The letter I, the first state award, takes 225 points for those receiving it. The most sought-after and the hardest to obtain is the second state award, an emblem in the shape of Illinois which requires 300 points.

The points are carried over from year to year and if a girl just misses an award one year she has the opportunity to receive her award the following year. At the end of the year these awards are presented at the annual Mother and Daughter tea. Here also the new officers are announced.

G.A.A. OFFICERS: Carol Alexander, vice-president; Judy Johnson, treasurer; Dorlene Sample, president. Not pictured—Kay Murray, secretary.

Bowling

This year the G.A.A. bowling program was extended so that 250 girls were able to bowl for at least 10 weeks each. For sophomores, juniors, and seniors, the activity was a continuance of one that they had especially enjoyed. For the freshmen who bowled the second semester it was an introduction to a wonderful sport. The freshmen, some of whom had never bowled before, could be seen experimenting with various balls. The bowling alleys' purchase of several 10-pound balls proved very helpful to many. As the end of the semester approached, everyone began to realize how much her game had improved, especially when she rolled so many more strikes!!

Activities

G.A.A. activities were handled a little differently this year. With the new girl's gym available every evening after school and two new instructors the organization was able to increase its program.

One addition which proved highly exciting was the all-star basketball tournament. Again, as in past years our telegraphic bowling tournament team was outstanding. Golf and riding were enjoyed very much by the seniors. Our future Patty Bergrs had six lessons, five in the gym and one at Cog Hill. Riding became available for the first time this year during both semesters.

Highlighting the year was the G. A. A. Mother-Daughter Tea which was held for the first time in the new cafeteria.

Golf: Peggy Carter, Nancy Herman, Carolyn Kijowski, Audrey Gosack.

The seniors placed first and the sophomores second in an elimination basketball tournament.

INSTRUCTORS: Bette Thomas, Nancee Gannaway, Mrs. Anderson, Jeanne Bjorkman, Dorlene Sample.

Water Safety

Water safety is a G.A.A. activity which requires the participants to exert a great deal of effort. In order to even be considered for the course the girls have to swim twenty-two consecutive lengths.

During the course the girls were taught by Mrs. Anderson and her assistants; Jeanne Bjorkman, Nancee Gannaway, Dorlene Sample, and Bette Thomas. The girls, in addition to learning many holds and carries, were also taught how to give artificial respiration and first aid. All of the girls who passed their practical and written exam received Senior Life Saving Badges except those who were under sixteen and they received Junior Life Saving Badges.

Give a Cheer

The cheerleaders have done an excellent job this year of leading the fans at all games and in promoting the good-will of fans of all other schools. Their cheering has helped our boys to victory and made them feel that "win or lose," we're always behind them.

The cheerleaders were able to attend a clinic at Illinois State Normal where they learned many new cheers and also had a lot of fun. Some of the cheers which they saw and heard were brought back to L.T.H.S. and tried on our student body.

Mrs. Rose who is sponsor of the cheer-leaders has made it possible for our school to be known for its neat, attractive, and snappy cheerleaders.

Here is the motto to which the girls have been faithful: "Better late than never, but better never late." The girls have always been on time, so now it's time for us to give them a cheer! !

This year's cheerleaders were: co-captains—Charlotte Grant and Jane Murray, Joan Carroll, Doris Vahle, Carol Alexander, Jean Malinowski, Patty Drake, and Sandy Rediehs.

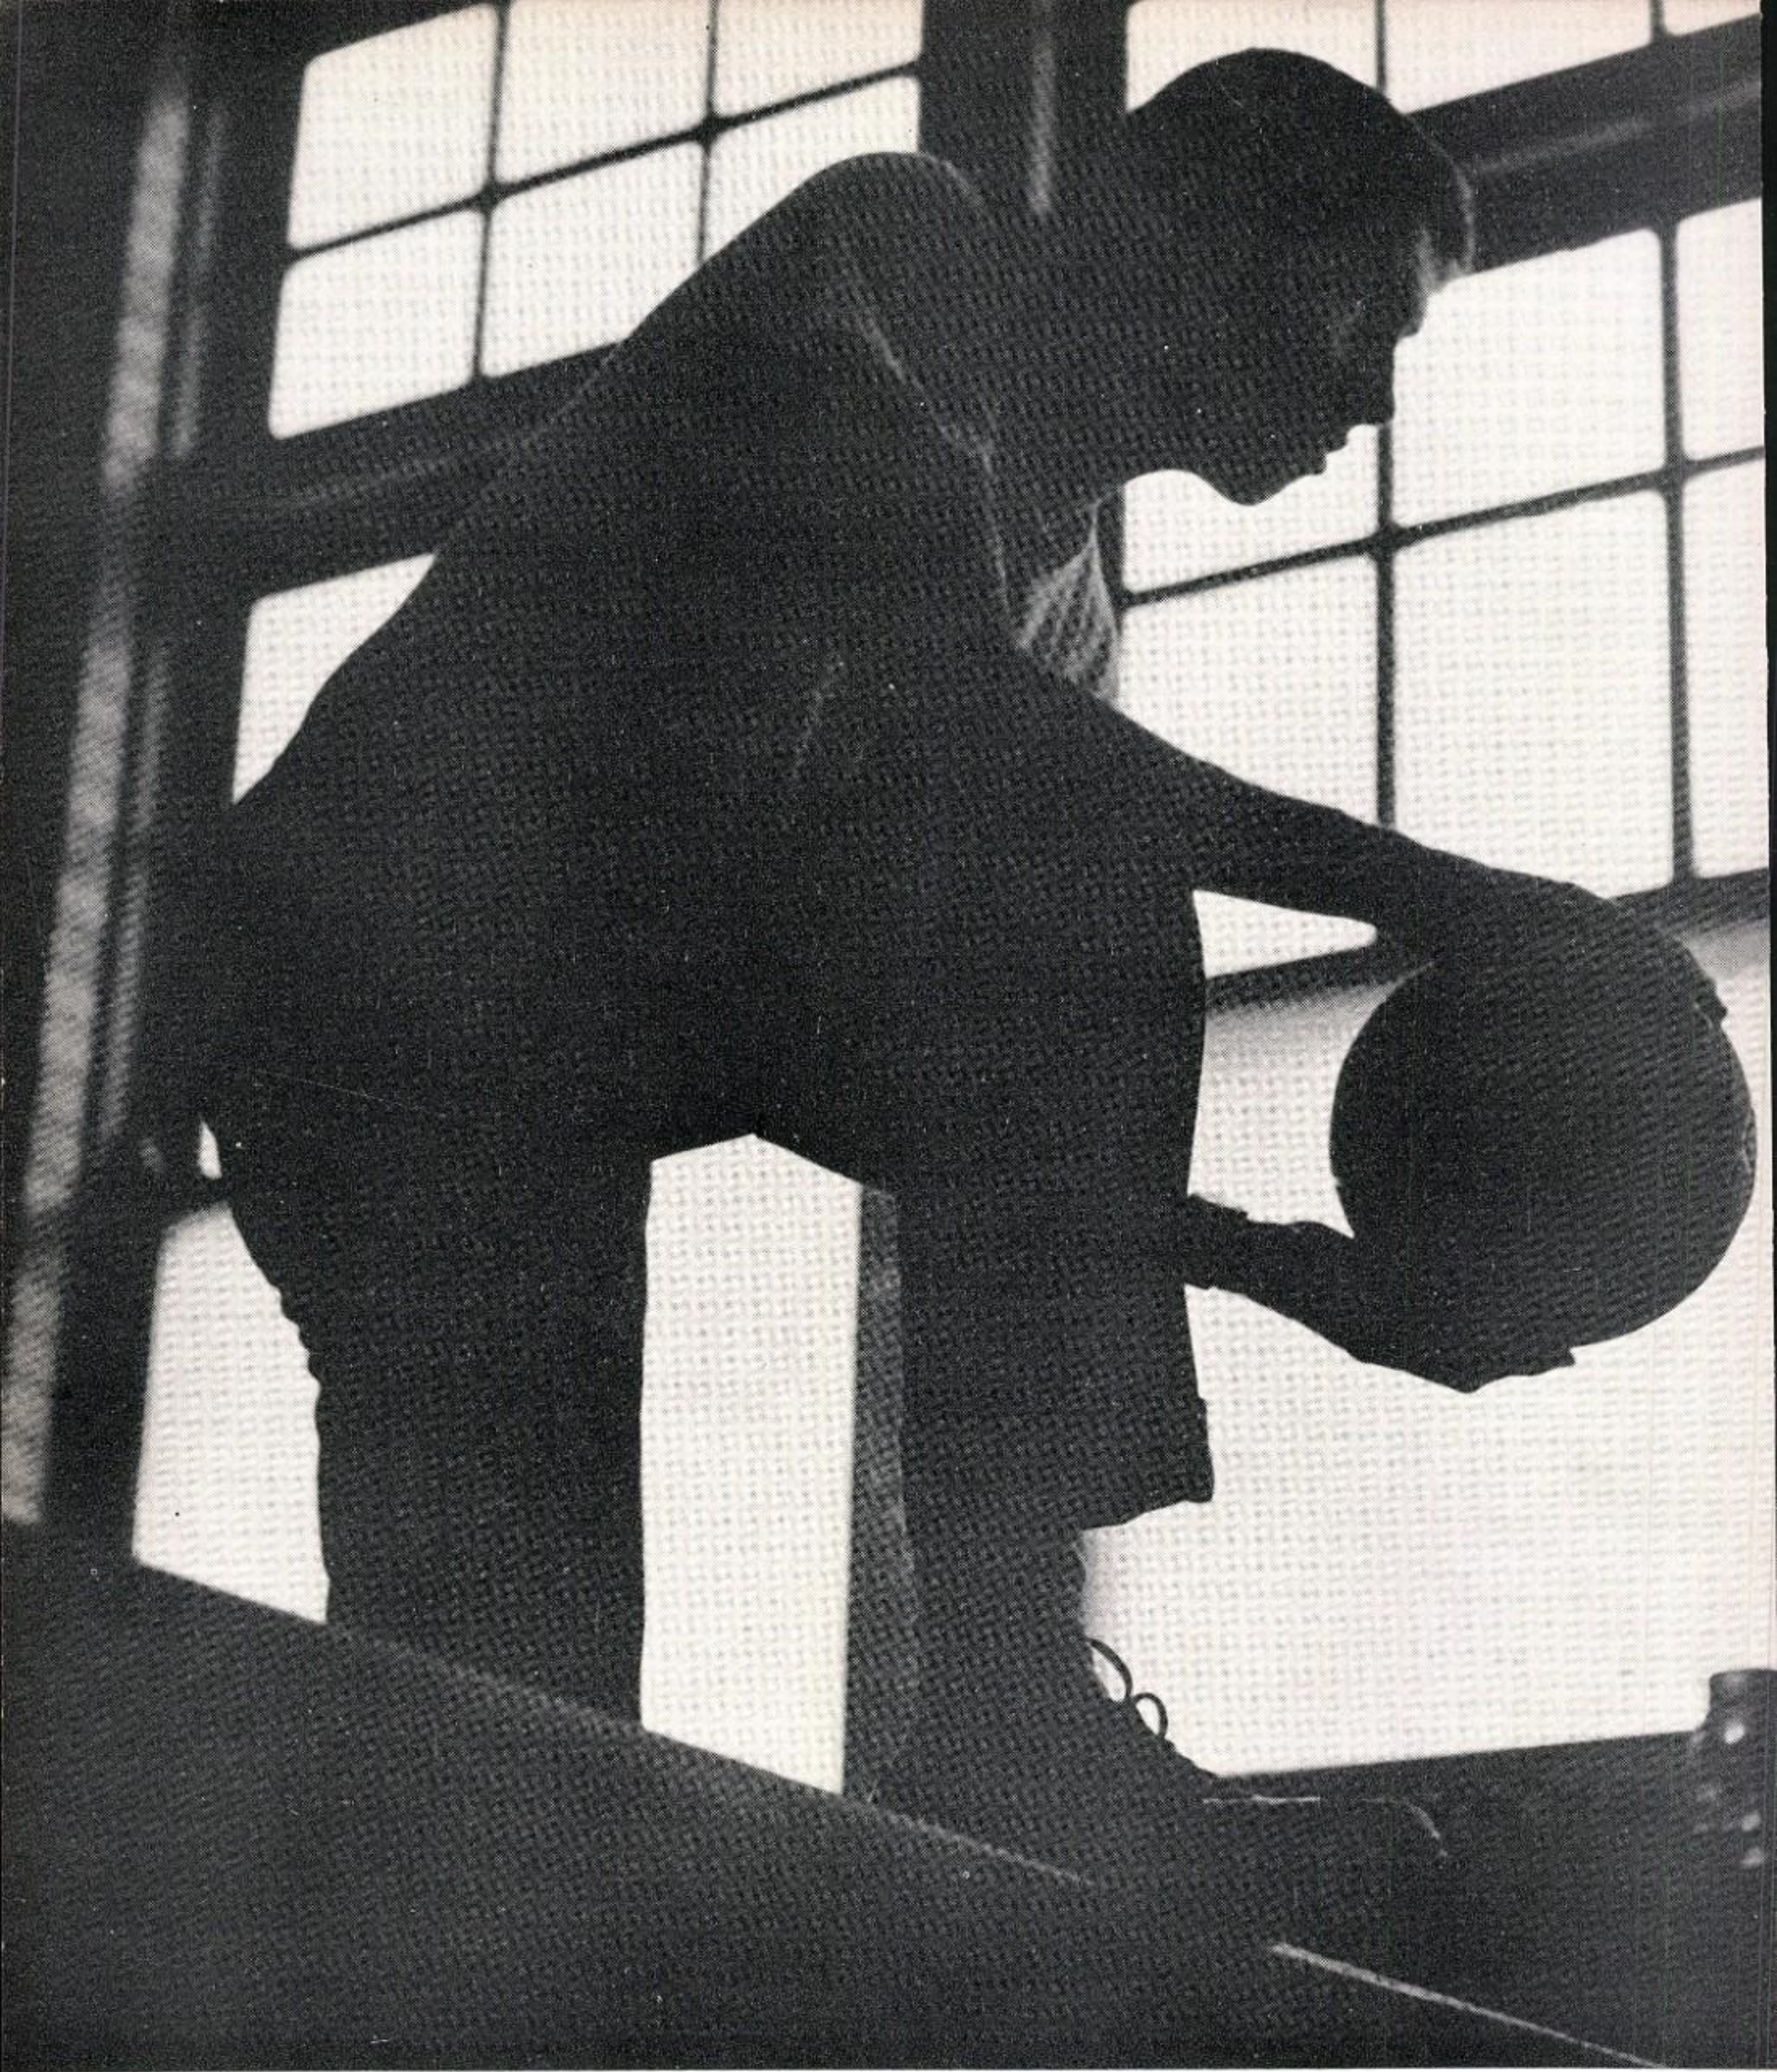

Jane Murray, captain of the frosh-soph, and Charlotte Grant, captain of the varsity, did an excellent job of leading the cheerleaders in their activities this year.

Having a lot of fun riding the toy donkeys at the donkey basketball game are cheerleaders: Charlotte Grant, Joan Carroll, and Carol Alexander.

Many thanks go to cheerleaders Carol Alexander, Jane Murray, Joan Carroll, Charlotte Grant, Sandra Rediehs, Jean Malinoski, Patty Drake, and Doris Vahle, who did such a wonderful job this year.

It appears that the PORTERS have really done something to make the cheerleaders, Doris Vahle, Jean Carroll, Charlotte Grant, and Carol Alexander, yell about.

L.T.H.S. Grid Season

VARSITY:

The Porter gridgers, under the guidance of Coaches Cisler and Kappmeyer, accomplished a major objective in their '55 campaign. Despite their unimpressive record (2-6), the season was far from disappointing, for the squad, made up primarily of underclassmen, acquired valuable experience to carry with them into the South Suburban League during the 1956 season. The team showed signs of brilliance at times, but inexperience coupled with stern opposition proved too great a handicap to overcome.

SOPHOMORE:

Our Sophomore football squad, although not having too impressive a won-loss record, showed fine spirit and determination this season. They were set back by the loss of several players to the varsity. This group was coached by Mr. Rogers and Mr. Beseman.

FRESHMEN:

The freshmen football team, showed great promise for the future. Under the able coaching of Mr. Charles Walters and Mr. Ray Gornik the freshman won two, lost three and tied one. The freshmen will be a welcome addition to our sophomore team, and in later years our varsity.

Fourth row: Charles Jones, Glenn Young, Larry Le Grand, Bill Burke, Wally Gulden, Paul Torkelson, Keith Wilson, Roland Whalen, Ray Wittkofski.

Wrestling

The youth movement which has been taking over the sports here at Lockport, has definitely taken over the wrestling team.

The team was made up of all freshmen and sophomores except for the co-captains. The team, though inexperienced, has really shown to their more experienced and stronger opponents the truth in the old saying "the bigger they are the harder they fall." Using speed and the many holds taught to them by Mr. Walters, the boys showed that they could really hold their own. In coming years these underclassmen are sure to make Lockport a wrestling power.

Jim Fitzpatrick, the captain and only senior on the team, leads his teammates through the letters LEAGUE CHAMPIONS '54 - '55 at the opening game of the basketball season.

Varsity Basketball

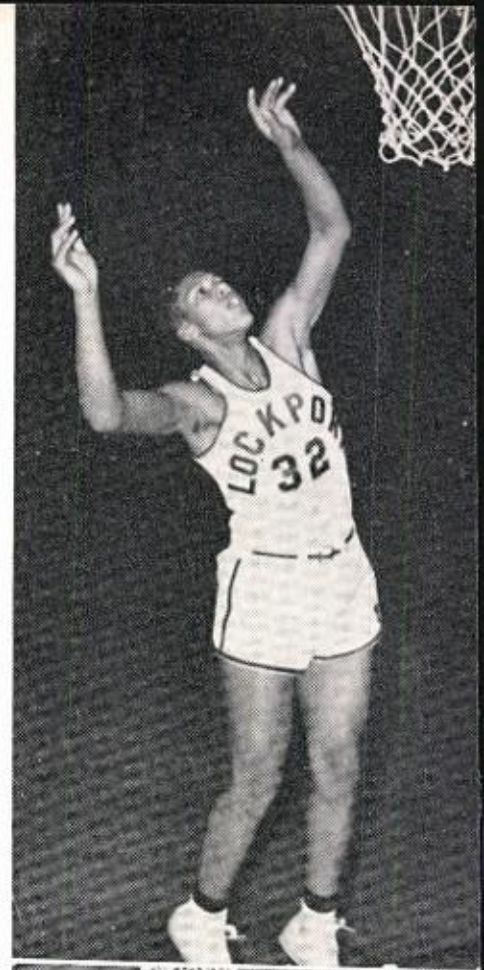

The youth movement, which swept over Lockport athletics this year, can definitely be carried over to the basketball team, for the squad was composed entirely of underclassmen. The two freshmen, eight sophomores and four juniors will, of course, be back for another try next year.

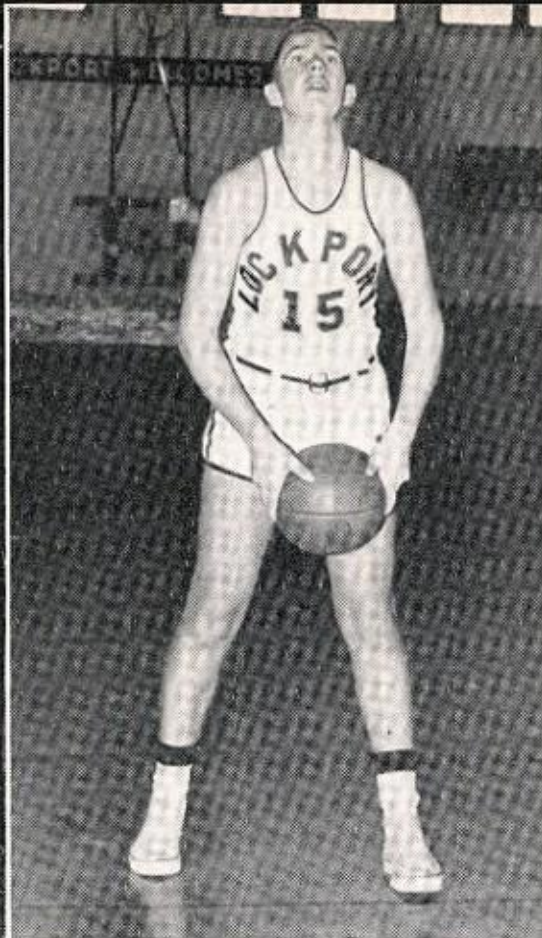

The team showed brilliantly at times but lacked the one outstanding attribute of a fine team — self-confidence. However, one major objective accomplished by Coach Van Deven's boys was the winning of a third straight trophy at the Pontiac Holiday Tournament.

Toward the end of the season, they began to find themselves and improved steadily. If this improvement continues they should be hard to stop next year.

Frosh-Soph Basketball

The Lockport Portermmites, coached by Mr. Gornik, suffered one of their most dismal and disappointing seasons in many years. But they were a young team with great promise as shown by their winning of the Carl Sandburg Frosh-Soph Tournament at the end of regular season play.

Their poor record (2-18) could well be attributed to the fact that ten underclassmen were promoted to the varsity as part of a sweeping youth movement in all athletics. The players, showing fine spirit and determination throughout the season, never stopped trying and always gave a fine account of themselves. Although the year was unimpressive as far as statistics are concerned, the sportsmanship and teamwork gained during the season will stay with them in their future years.

Varsity Baseball

The varsity looked very impressive this year at times. The 20 players, who were hand-picked by Mr. Kappmeyer, gave their very best even under the most disappointing conditions. Cold weather and other setbacks hampered the team in early practices, but it reached its peak by midseason, and developed into a potentially strong team for next year.

Although there were but three returning regulars, the team was bolstered by several competent juniors and some very promising underclassmen.

The emphasis this year was on speed and defense, but hitting was not neglected in the least.

Frosh-Soph Baseball

When Coach Ray Gornik called his first practice session, he found forty recruits, among these five returning lettermen. Again the youth movement prevailed for there were almost three times as many freshmen as sophomores. But this didn't include five sophomores who were called up to the varsity.

The team labored indoors and outside for a month before their first game on April 23. During these practices, all the boys perfected the basic fundamentals of the game, and the starting team was determined.

The season's schedule included five home games and five away games ending with an away game on May 24.

Golf, Tennis and Track

GOLF

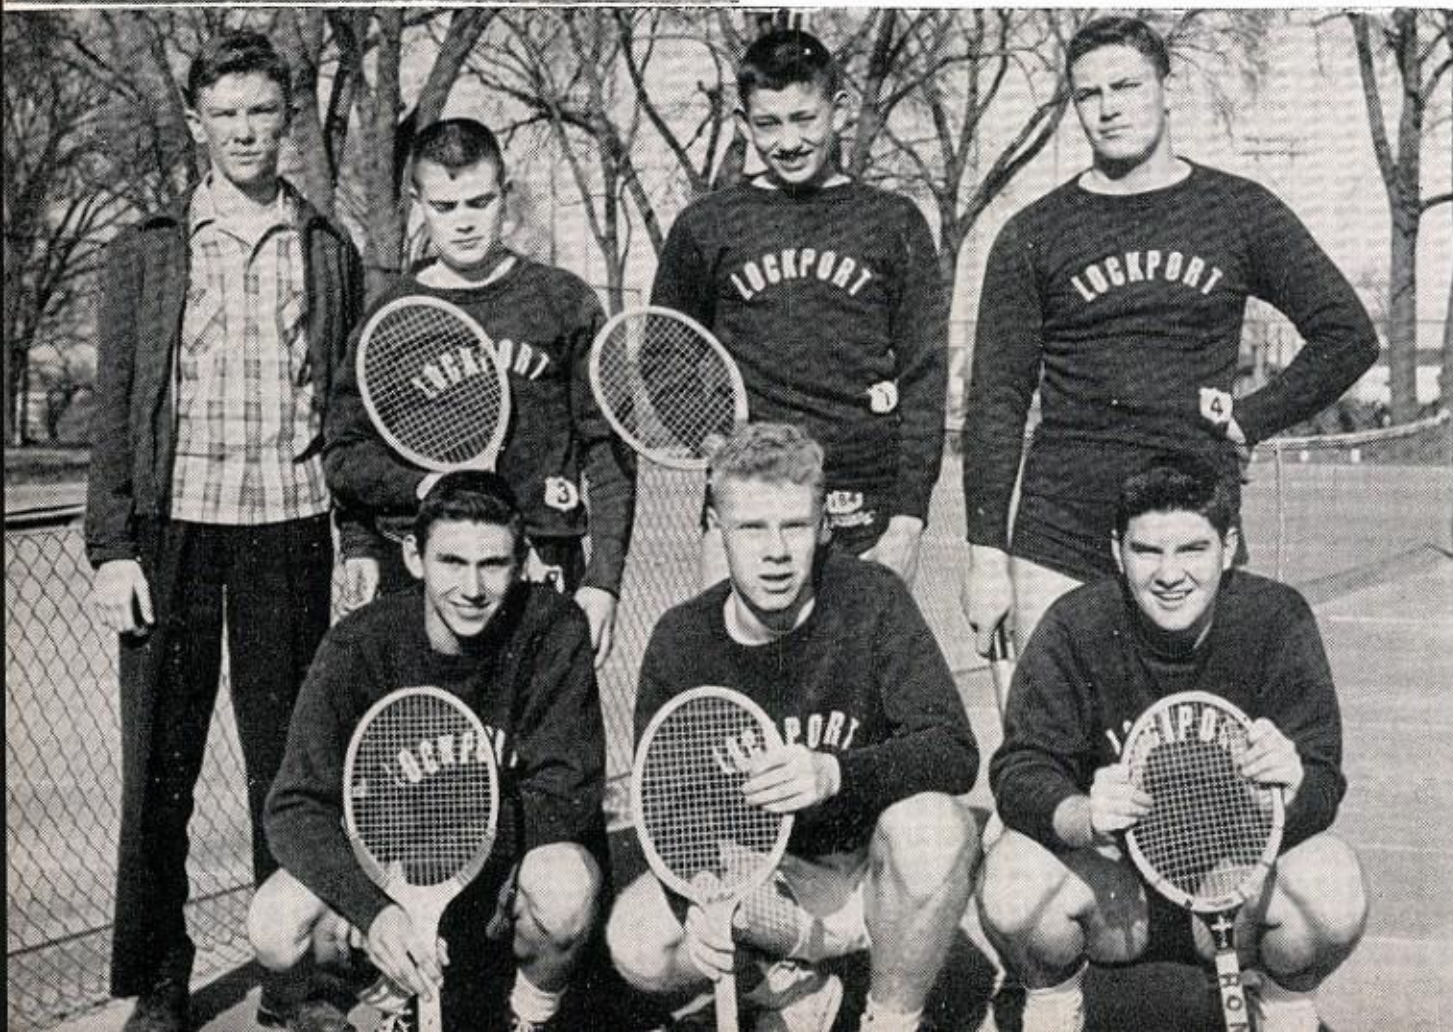

This was a "building year" as far as Coach Hill and his Lockport golf team was concerned; for there were only two seniors, Rich Bischoff and George Denick, on the twenty-one man squad. However, the team had good balance and was bolstered by four returning varsity lettermen and two frosh-soph lettermen, as well as many outstanding freshmen, led by Steve Partak, who showed great potential as a varsity competitor.

Some of the best teams in the state provided the competition for the Porter golfers this year, including Leyden, winner of S.S.L. the last two years and third in state last year.

Considering the fine showing the young Porters made this year, Coach Hill may look to the future with great enthusiasm.

TENNIS

The tennis team of L.T.H.S. was coached for the first time by Mr. Walters. The team, very handicapped because of the loss of returning lettermen, was weak and inexperienced. Even though the loss was great Mr. Walter instilled in the boys the will to fight and win for the honor of good old L.T.H.S.

TRACK

Around the middle of March the familiar sound of running was heard in the school hallways signifying that the track season was once more under way. At the first practice session Coach Rogers found the largest numbers of aspirants since he has been in charge of the team. The large turnout showed the enthusiasm felt for the sport.

As in other sports, it was basically a young team. On the varsity level there were four sophomores promoted from the frosh-soph, and only six seniors were on the team. Although there was only one returning varsity letterman, this fact was offset by the return of several capable juniors who were on the frosh-soph the previous season.

The season ended successfully with the South Suburban Conference Meet on May 23.

Lee James, sophomore track star, shows his ability in the pole vault during a track practice session.

Charlie Travis, one of the underclassmen on the varsity track team, clears the bar with ease while competing in the high jump.

Swimming

Our swimming team was one of the few sports to hold out against the youth movement which has predominately taken over here at Lockport. The team this year broke even by topping Argo twice, and Leyden once, but lost to Elgin, Thornton Fractional and Thornton of Harvey. To end the season the Porters took third in the South Suburban Conference, while the Wildcats of Thornton of Harvey again took first and Thornton Fractional took second.

The team, which loses six regulars this year, will be bolstered next year by the many promising freshmen and sophomores, who should make a good showing for Lockport.

Third row: Jim Breihan, Bill Peterson, Ed Weeks, Jay LeFevers, Jack Ludwig, Bernie Kijowski.

Second row: Wayne Peterson, Duncan Bachmann, Bob Matlock, Joe Zolla, Bill Zadel, Mark Astrom.

First row: Andy Djerf, Ken Pierson, Jack Diaz, Frank Alberico, John Billingsley.
